NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

ALL the actors in the Flack divorce scandal are absent from New-York. The unsavory mess thus gets a vacation and an airing.

FIFTY THOUSAND people arrived at Atlantic City, N. J., Saturday and yesterday, and more than 130,000 spent Sunday there. This was the biggest rush in the history of that famous watering place.

TAMMANY HALL as a censor of morals is an interesting and also an edifying spectacle. Let it keep on and hope for more bogus divorce cases to assist its purification.—Providence Journal.

And when all the unclean birds are turned out they will organize a new Tammany and whip the old Tammany out of its boots.

THE Pennsylvania weather service estimates that enough water has fallen in that state this summer to make a lake 1,000 miles square and 35 feet deep. The quantity that fell upon the mountain plateaus and declivities of the state during the three days of the Johnstown flood was 7,000,000,000 tons.

SULLIVAN is out on $1,000 bail. He was very willing to pay that amount of money in a fine. Perhaps he will not return to Mississippi. But he violated a law of this state. So he can yet be punished, if Gov. Hill possesses as much respect for his oath of office and the honor of his state as Gov. Lowry.

PRESIDENT HARRISON attended church yesterday in the little chapel at Deer Park. He afterwards took a two-mile walk in the mountains, accompanied by Private Secretary Halford, Attorney General Miller and others. He will start for Indianapolis Wednesday morning and arrive there at 11 o'clock at night.

WHEN the Democrats of Lehigh county held their convention last week, they first endorsed the free trade doctrine of Roger Mills, and then endorsed ex-Congressman Sowden who was boycotted by the party because he refused to vote for the Mills bill. The intelligence of the Democratic party, which regards all things as alike that wear the Democratic label, is too awful to contemplate.

THE latest estimate of the wheat crop of the United States is 500,000,000 bushels. This is 85,000,000 more than the crop of last year. We sent abroad 121,000,000 bushels of the crop of 1888, and expect to have 150,000,000 bushels this year in excess of the home supply. This is good news for Europe, where its own crop and that derived from Asia is very short. The world's supply of bread will not fail.

THE postal card is popular, and the government is obtaining it very cheaply. For the next four years the average consumption is estimated at $500,000,000 a year, and the average contract price for the two sizes is 40 cents a thousand. In the first year of the postal card the issue was 100,000,000, and the price was $1.39⅞ per thousand. The "postal" has evidently come to stay, and even one cent letter postage will not crowd it out.

CONGRESSMAN LAIRD of Nebraska is dead. This makes the vacancies in the House even between the two parties, that caused by the death of Gay of Louisiana not having been filled. Laird has served in Congress three terms and was last fall elected to his fourth. His majority over the Democratic and anti-monopoly combination last fall was 9,756. His district cast 58,046 votes, or more than double the number cast in Georgia in 1886 for ten members.

IT is now believed in Elizabeth, N. J., that "Jack the Peeper," who has been haunting the windows of young ladies' sleeping rooms at night, is an imaginary being and nothing else. This is not unlikely. If half a dozen mischievous girls were to put their heads together to start a story of night visitations of a mysterious order, they would be responsible for a hundred visions of the nameless wretch. Timidity and hysteria could be relied upon to multiply him indefinitely.

SIGISMUND KAUFFMAN, a leading lawyer of New York, died in Paris on Saturday, aged 64 years. Mr. Kauffman came to the United States from Germany in 1848, and was admitted to the bar in 1852. He became interested in politics, and in 1860 was an elector on the Lincoln ticket. In 1870 he was the Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor. He has also served as Police Commissioner of Brooklyn and Commissioner of Emigration. His remains will be incinerated at Gotha and brought to New York.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN gets six months' liberty by the appeal of his lawyers to the Supreme Court of Mississippi. He improved it yesterday by taking a journey northward. He received a royal welcome in Cincinnati, where he had a few minutes to spare before taking the train for New York. He is under $1,000 bail to appear at court and pay $500 costs. He still hopes to escape with a small fine. His return to New York gives Gov. Hill the opportunity to execute the law upon him. He owes the state $1,000 and a year of hard labor, and the Governor has the right to remove the District Attorney who refuses or neglects to prosecutd him. Mississippi should no longer be allowed to shame New York by its higher regard for justice and decency.

GOV. HILL has not yet taken any action in the cases of the five condemned murderers of New-York who are under orders to go to the gallows next Friday. His well known dislike of Friday as hangman's day will probably, however, impel him to break up the program before the fatal hour arrives. He may even commute the sentences of one or two. The most appropriate subject of clemency appears to be Packenham, who is an old man and never was guilty of crime before, and who murdered his wife in a drunken frenzy. The most hopeful one is Giblin, who shot the wife of a grocer in an attempt to recover a counterfeit bill that he had attempted to pass. His crime is regarded in New York as the most brutal of the series, and his hopefulness is not sustained by public sympathy. Nolan, Carolin and Lewis have apparently become resigned to their fate.

SUFFOCATED AND BURNED TO DEATH.

Nine Lives Lost by the Burning of a New-York Tenement.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Aug. 19.—Early this morning fire broke out in the kitchen of the restaurant on the store floor of the big five-story tenement at 305 Seventh-avenue. Nine of the 60 odd occupants of the house were burned to death, and it is a great wonder that many more did not lose their lives. The dead are: William Glennon, aged 60, burned to death; Nellie McGeoghan, 20 years, smothered; Mary Wells, 31, smothered; Jane Wells, 4, smothered; Thomas Wells, 2, smothered; Bertha Lustig, 40, burned to death; William McKee, 47, burned to death; Jane Jeffrey, 65, smothered; an unknown woman, about 45 years old, stout, fair complexion, smothered. The list of injured is William Glennon, 18 years, badly burned; J. Glennon, body burned and injured. The building was occupied by 13 families, who have been made temporarily homeless by the fire. The flames did not do very much damage to their household effects. The loss will not amount to more than $10,000. The fire originated in the rear of John Snyder's restaurant at an early hour when all the people in the house were sleeping soundly. Just how the fire started is as yet a mystery.

Less than half a block away on the corner of Twenty-Eighth-street and the Avenue stood policemen Warner and McCullogh, of the Thirteeth-Street Station. They heard a cry, which came from the building and looking in that direction saw a wall of fire beating against the front windows of the restaurant. A forked tongue of flame almost immediately shot out from the roof and lighted up the neighborhood with ghastly effect. With their clubs the officers beat in the front door, but a blaze shot out and kept them back. They tried the next door and in that way found an entrance, but up to this time hardly a sound was heard in the building. With their clubs the two blue-coats rapped in a frenzied way at all the doors they came to. Murmurings at first were heard, then a buzz of many voices, which finally swelled into a wail of terror and agony from men, women and children. Fire-escapes, leading from the burning building to the as yet untouched tenement next door, were filled up with half-naked people forced out of their rooms by the heat and flames. In response to alarms, which had in the meantime been sent out, there came to the scene a number of fire companies and several ambulances. Not one in the fated building escaped down the stairway, and the names ot the few who tried it are found in the list of the dead. The flames were extinguished easily by the firemen, but not before the work of death had been completed. The search for the dead in the charred and dripping building was at once commenced. Hysterical women looked for their lost ones and dry-eyed men, with anguish stamped upon every lineament of their stained faces, searched among the ruins they had once called home for the remains of one or two who were missing. The finding of the charred and contorted object which had once been flesh and blood and a link in the home circle was pitiful in the extreme. Few men stood, the strain and the women could hardly be restrained from inflicting injuries upon themselves. The first body found was that of old William Gennon. The remains were discovered by the side of the bed in his room on the second floor. He had risen to fly with his sons, but soon succumbed. The boys were taken to the hospital. They were badly burned on the feet by walking on the hot iron bars of the fire-escape. In the room of the Wells family was a sight that cannot easily be forgotten. In the middle of the floor knelt the mother, Mary Wells, and in her dead embrace were her children, Jane and Thomas. They had been suffocated and not a burn or blister defaced the pallor of their countenances. The nine dead bodies were loaded in the ambulances and taken to the Thirtieth-Street Station. The Coroner subsequently gave the friends permits for the removal of the dead. Snyder, the proprietor of the restaurant, a colored cook, named Brooks, and a waiter named Plunkett have been locked up on suspicion of wilfully causing the fire. It is alleged that the cook was drunk. Snyder had $1,000 insurance on his fixtures, which was more than they were worth. The policy expires September 24, and Snyder had the policy in his pocket when arrested.

Coroner Hanley this afternoon committed John J. Snyder, proprietor of the restaurant, and his cook, Walter Brooks, to the Tombs to await the inquest, which will be held Monday. Kerosene was plainly smelled on the stairway of the burned building.

ANOTHER FIRE IN NEW-YORK.

Fire broke out early this morning on the third and fourth floors of the four-story building 298 Broadway, occupied by Rappel Tuck & Sons, Art Publishers, causing damage to their stock to the amount of $10,000. On the second floor Landers, Frary & Clark, dealers in cutlery, suffered a loss of $2,000. Jacobs & Son, on the first floor, will lose $2,000 by water. The damage to the building was $2,000.

That Mail Robbery at St. Louis.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 19.—Postmaster Hyde was seen at his home late last night in regard to the reported mail robbery. He knew of the robbery, but said the only information he had received from Terre Haute was that there had been one registered pouch stolen from the mail car, and that it had been found an hour after the train had passed lying by the side of the track, cut open and rifled of its contents. The pouch was a through one from Albany, N. Y., to St. Louis. Its exact contents could not be ascertained, but the letters are reported as bearing for the most part remittances for cattle transactions, and in this case they would probably contain large sums of money. Many of the packages probably had remittances covering the value of several car loads of cattle, and this would swell the total amount to a considerable figure.

Boonville's Postmaster Ruined.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

HUNTINGBURG, Ind., Aug. 19.—The defalcation in the Boonville Post-Office approximates $6,500 and the bondsmen have settled it. Clerk Dewey took $600 of Postmaster Swint's undrawn salary. Mr. Swint is editor of the Boonville Enquirer, but on account of ill health left the entire management of the Post-Office to Dewey. Dewey had not made a report to the Government for 21 weeks. The robbery has completely ruined Postmaster Swint, who turns over to the bondsmen his paper and all his property except his household furniture. Dewey was infatuated with gambling. He left in Boonville about $1,000 in unpaid debts. Detectives are on his track, but it is doubtful if he will be captured.

Mrs. Frouenfelter will also go back, as her husband has charged her with grand larceny in having stolen $1,500, which it is charged she gave to Crane.

EFFECTUAL SHARP-SHOOTING DONE.

A Rifleman Saves a Child's Life by Piercing Toy Balloons with Balls.

By Telegraph to the Freeman.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Sophie Schwab, a two-year-old child, involuntarily became a baloonist yesterday, and was wafted high up over the broad bosom of Lake Michigan. A rifleman saved the child's life. The accident took place at Sheffield Park, and was witnessed by 1,500 picknickers. An Italian peddler of toy balloons attempted to serve two purchasers at once, and let go his string of bright-colored globes. The cord got twisted about Sophie's left arm and also in her hair, and the buoyant rubber bubbles started heavenward taking the child with them. The mother shrieked and fainted. The bystanders stood horror-stricken, scarcely breathing as the balloons swept close to a large oak tree and the infant grasped a handful of twigs and checked her flight. A muscular young German ascended the tree in an instant, and crept out on the branch near the child. At this moment her puny strength gave out, and the balloon, suddenly released, went again upward at least 100 feet, drifting then out over the Lake. Augustus Koch, a sharp shooter, who was attending the picnic with his repeating rifle, hurriedly jumped into a skiff with two companions and pulled out into range. Koch succeeded in piercing several of the balloons, each successful shot helping the bunch to descend. Before it finally reached the water the boat was at the spot and Sophie did not even get her feet wet.

Quietness Reigns at Richmond, Texas.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

RICHMOND, Tex., Aug. 19.—The situation is quiet here since the terrible riot, in which Sheriff Garvey and ex-Sheriff Blakeley lost their lives and several prominent citizens were wounded. The Light Guard of Houston are here. Governor Ross arrived yesterday, accompanied by the Brenham Light Guards. It is thought that the military will not be needed, at least for the present. As the Sheriff has been killed and his Deputy wounded, no arrests have been made, nor has an inquest been held to investigate the cause of death, though the parties have been buried. It is thought that all will be left to the Grand Jury for settlement.

He was bitten by his own dog three weeks ago and was taken with spasms in Boston Saturday while in a barber's chair, and the spasms are now constantly recurring. The dog bit him but slightly while playing and the wound was not considered serious.

THE STOCK AND MONEY MARKET.

Financial Doings on Wall-Street To-Day—The Closing Quotations.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Aug. 19.—The bad bank statement of Saturday with the new and severe cut in rates by the Chicago, Burlington & Northern Railroad conspired to give a decidedly weak tone to the stock market this morning, and first prices were generally ½ and ⅝ per cent. lower than Saturday's figures, while North-western was down ⅞. The weakness did not bring any more activity with it, and while further declines were secured in most of the list they were for small fractions only, and North-western and Burlington & Quincy were particularly well held. Wabash preferred lost ½, which was afterward recovered, and Chicago gas lost ½ and Cotton Oil ¾, but the movements in the remainder were entirely insignificent. At 11 o'clock the market was dull and steady.

THE DEMISE OF MR. LAIRD.

IN THE JUDGE TERRY SHOOTING CASE.

What Chief Justice Fuller Said During an Interview Last Night.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 19.—Chief Justice Fuller passed through Pittsburg last night from Cresson Springs on his way to Chicago. When asked about the killing of ex-Judge Terry he said: "I had heard that Terry had uttered threats against Justice Field, but I did not know of them personally. I was surprised when I heard that Justice Field had been arrested. I cannot see what he had to do with the murder any more than any other spectator. Judge Sawyer has issued a habeas corpus and Justice Field will no doubt be released."

Damage and Death Caused by Striking a Cow—Attempted Train-Wrecking.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

VINCENNES, Ind., Aug. 19.—Freight train No. 48 struck a cow yesterday morning at Montgomery station, on the Ohio & Mississippi Railroad, throwing the locomotive off the track. Eight cars were ditched and demolished. The locomotive is badly damaged. Three of the cars were filled with cattle and several animals were killed. Two men were killed, J. C. Lyons being literally mashed into a jelly, and C. W. Paulley so badly crushed that he died. The engineer and fireman saved themselves by jumping.

An attempt at train-wrecking is reported on the new Evansville & Richmond Railway, in course of erection through Elnora, about four miles out of Odon. Some miscreants placed a lot of rails upon the track, with the intention of wrecking the first train that came along, but several persons of the town of Odon borrowed a hand-car to visit Elnora, and were going over the new road at a terrific rate, when the car struck the obstructions, and was knocked into the air and the passengers were thrown in every direction. They were all injured.

OWATONNA, Minn., Aug. 19.—As a gravel train on the Northwestern Railway was backing into the gravel pit near here this morning part of the train became uncoupled from the engine on top of the grade and the train went flying down the incline and up again on the other track, running clear across the road and striking J. A. Eastman's house, which stood seven rods from the end of the track. The wing portion of the house was knocked to pieces and the main portion 11½ feet from its foundation. The plastering all over the house was cracked. The family had all gone up-stairs except a little girl who was seriously injured.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 19.—Serious loss of life was averted by the presence of mind of a switchman on the Northern Central Railroad this morning. Shifting engine No. 88 was standing on the main track at Lafayette station, near Calverton Stock Yards, when the Philadelphia Express, known as train No. 92, was sighted. Opinions differ as to the action of the shifter. Some say the engineer reversed the lever and jumped for his life; others that the passenger train struck the shifter and sent it on a wild backward journey. The shifter flew at lightning speed through three tunnels and through Fulton and Union Stations. The Popes Creek train was just pulling out, well filled with passengers. The switchman at Centre-street seeing the locomotive running wild, opened the switch. The shifter crashed into a locomotive and two cars, driving them through the wall of a large meat house occupied by Nelson Morris & Company, of Chicago. No meats were stored there at the time. The two locomotives and cars are a total wreck and the damage to the meat house is $5,000. Total damage $30,000.

Of Interest to Old Soldiers.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Assistant Secretary Buzzy has rendered an important decision on the pension claim of Daniel B. Kaufman, late of Company A, Forty-Eighth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, which was brought before him on a motion for reconsideration. In his decision the Assistant Secretary rescinds Rule No. 135, made by Commissioner Black, September 4, 1885, and overrules the opinion of ex-Assistant Secretary Hawkins of the same case, that a "dishonorable discharge" from the service operates as a "bar to pension." He also holds that rule No. 135 was an erroneous interpretation of statutes granting pensions to the soldiers of the late war for disabilities incurred in the line of duty, and declares that the character of a soldier's discharge cannot affect his claim for pension on account of such disabilities. He holds that a "dishonorable discharge" is a penalty for a specific offense against the service, for which the soldier may be punished, but that the penalty cannot include, nor relate to a claim for pension based upon disability. The two things are held to be wholly distinct from each other, and are not governed by the same legal consideration. The opinion re-establishes the ruling of the department which prevailed through all administrations antidating the issuance of rule No. 135 of General Black.

Disciplined with a Buggy Trace.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WARRENTON, Ga., Aug. 19.—The people of Warren County have organized to get rid of the Mormons, who are not only making converts among the ignorant, but have induced some good citizens to join them. Last week 15 well-known citizens arranged themselves around the dwelling of Filmo Moore, a farmer living on a plantation belonging to Dr. H. W. Pilchet, in the Elim district. After waiting several hours, several persons were seen to leave the house. In a few seconds they were surrounded a marched to a swamp, into which they were taken and disciplined with a buggy trace. They were then ordered to leave the country at once.

Laird's Death was "Mysterious."

By Telegraph to the Freeman.

HASTINGS, Neb., Aug. 19.—An autopsy was held on the remains of Congressman Laird, who died here Saturday. The theory that he died of softening of the brain was dispelled by an examination of that organ, it being found in a perfectly healthy state. A number of physicians who have been in attendance at Mr. Laird's bedside attribute his death to blood poisoning, the result of a recent operation performed, but the cause of his death is still wrapped in mystery.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

ALL the actors in the Flack divorce scandal are absent from New-York. The unsavory mess thus gets a vacation and an airing.

FIFTY THOUSAND people arrived at Atlantic City, N. J., Saturday and yesterday, and more than 130,000 spent Sunday there. This was the biggest rush in the history of that famous watering place.

TAMMANY HALL as a censor of morals is an interesting and also an edifying spectacle. Let it keep on and hope for more bogus divorce cases to assist its purification.—Providence Journal.

And when all the unclean birds are turned out they will organize a new Tammany and whip the old Tammany out of its boots.

THE Pennsylvania weather service estimates that enough water has fallen in that state this summer to make a lake 1,000 miles square and 35 feet deep. The quantity that fell upon the mountain plateaus and declivities of the state during the three days of the Johnstown flood was 7,000,000,000 tons.

SULLIVAN is out on $1,000 bail. He was very willing to pay that amount of money in a fine. Perhaps he will not return to Mississippi. But he violated a law of this state. So he can yet be punished, if Gov. Hill possesses as much respect for his oath of office and the honor of his state as Gov. Lowry.

PRESIDENT HARRISON attended church yesterday in the little chapel at Deer Park. He afterwards took a two-mile walk in the mountains, accompanied by Private Secretary Halford, Attorney General Miller and others. He will start for Indianapolis Wednesday morning and arrive there at 11 o'clock at night.

WHEN the Democrats of Lehigh county held their convention last week, they first endorsed the free trade doctrine of Roger Mills, and then endorsed ex-Congressman Sowden who was boycotted by the party because he refused to vote for the Mills bill. The intelligence of the Democratic party, which regards all things as alike that wear the Democratic label, is too awful to contemplate.

THE latest estimate of the wheat crop of the United States is 500,000,000 bushels. This is 85,000,000 more than the crop of last year. We sent abroad 121,000,000 bushels of the crop of 1888, and expect to have 150,000,000 bushels this year in excess of the home supply. This is good news for Europe, where its own crop and that derived from Asia is very short. The world's supply of bread will not fail.

THE postal card is popular, and the government is obtaining it very cheaply. For the next four years the average consumption is estimated at $500,000,000 a year, and the average contract price for the two sizes is 40 cents a thousand. In the first year of the postal card the issue was 100,000,000, and the price was $1.39¾ per thousand. The "postal" has evidently come to stay, and even one cent letter postage will not crowd it out.

CONGRESSMAN LAIRD of Nebraska is dead. This makes the vacancies in the House even between the two parties, that caused by the death of Gay of Louisiana not having been filled. Laird has served in Congress three terms and was last fall elected to his fourth. His majority over the Democratic and anti-monopoly combination last fall was 9,756. His district cast 58,046 votes, or more than double the number cast in Georgia in 1886 for ten members.

IT is now believed in Elizabeth, N. J., that "Jack the Peeper," who has been haunting the windows of young ladies' sleeping rooms at night, is an imaginary being and nothing else. This is not unlikely. If half a dozen mischievous girls were to put their heads together to start a story of night visitations of a mysterious order, they would be responsible for a hundred visions of the nameless wretch. Timidity and hysteria could be relied upon to multiply him indefinitely.

SIGISMUND KAUFFMAN, a leading lawyer of New York, died in Paris on Saturday, aged 64 years. Mr. Kauffman came to the United States from Germany in 1848, and was admitted to the bar in 1852. He became interested in politics, and in 1860 was an elector on the Lincoln ticket. In 1870 he was the Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor. He has also served as Police Commissioner of Brooklyn and Commissioner of Emigration. His remains will be incinerated at Gotha and brought to New York.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN gets six months' liberty by the appeal of his lawyers to the Supreme Court of Mississippi. He improved it yesterday by taking a journey northward. He received a royal welcome in Cincinnati, where he had a few minutes to spare before taking the train for New York. He is under $1,000 bail to appear at court and pay $500 costs. He still hopes to escape with a small fine. His return to New York gives Gov. Hill the opportunity to execute the law upon him. He owes the state $1,000 and a year of hard labor, and the Governor has the right to remove the District Attorney who refuses or neglects to prosecutd him. Mississippi should no longer be allowed to shame New York by its higher regard for justice and decency.

GOV. HILL has not yet taken any action in the cases of the five condemned murderers of New York who are under orders to go to the gallows next Friday. His well known dislike of Friday as hangman's day will probably, however, impel him to break up the program before the fatal hour arrives. He may even commute the sentences of one or two. The most appropriate subject of clemency appears to be Packenham, who is an old man and never was guilty of crime before, and who murdered his wife in a drunken frenzy. The most hopeful one is Giblin, who shot the wife of a grocer in an attempt to recover a counterfeit bill that he had attempted to pass. His crime is regarded in New York as the most brutal of the series, and his hopefulness is not sustained by public sympathy. Nolan, Carolin and Lewis have apparently become resigned to their fate.

SUFFOCATED AND BURNED TO DEATH.

Nine Lives Lost by the Burning of a New-York Tenement.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Aug. 19.—Early this morning fire broke out in the kitchen of the restaurant on the store floor of the big five-story tenement at 305 Seventh-avenue. Nine of the 60 odd occupants of the house were burned to death, and it is a great wonder that many more did not lose their lives. The dead are: William Glennon, aged 60, burned to death; Nellie McGeoghan, 20 years, smothered; Mary Wells, 31, smothered; Jane Wells, 4, smothered; Thomas Wells, 2, smothered; Bertha Lustig, 40, burned to death; William McKee, 47, burned to death; Jane Jeffrey, 65, smothered; an unknown woman, about 45 years old, stout, fair complexion, smothered. The list of injured is William Glennon, 18 years, badly burned; J. Glennon, body burned and injured. The building was occupied by 13 families, who have been made temporarily homeless by the fire. The flames did not do very much damage to their household effects. The loss will not amount to more than $10,000. The fire originated in the rear of John Snyder's restaurant at an early hour when all the people in the house were sleeping soundly. Just how the fire started is as yet a mystery.

Less than half a block away on the corner of Twenty-Eighth-street and the Avenue stood policemen Warner and McCullogh, of the Thirteeth-Street Station. They heard a cry, which came from the building and looking in that direction saw a wall of fire beating against the front windows of the restaurant. A forked tongue of flame almost immediately shot out from the roof and lighted up the neighborhood with ghastly effect. With their clubs the officers beat in the front door, but a blaze shot out and kept them back. They tried the next door and in that way found an entrance, but up to this time hardly a sound was heard in the building. With their clubs the two blue-coats rapped in a frenzied way at all the doors they came to. Murmurings at first were heard, then a buzz of many voices, which finally swelled into a wail of terror and agony from men, women and children. Fire-escapes, leading from the burning building to the as yet untouched tenement next door, were filled up with half-naked people forced out of their rooms by the heat and flames. In response to alarms, which had in the meantime been sent out, there came to the scene a number of fire companies and several ambulances. Not one in the fated building escaped down the stairway, and the names of the few who tried it are found in the list of the dead. The flames were extinguished easily by the firemen, but not before the work of death had been completed. The search for the dead in the charred and dripping building was at once commenced. Hysterical women looked for their lost ones and dry-eyed men, with anguish stamped upon every lineament of their stained faces, searched among the ruins they had once called home for the remains of one or two who were missing. The finding of the charred and contorted object which had once been flesh and blood and a link in the home circle was pitiful in the extreme. Few men stood, the strain and the women could hardly be restrained from inflicting injuries upon themselves. The first body found was that of old William Gennon. The remains were discovered by the side of the bed in his room on the second floor. He had risen to fly with his sons, but soon succumbed. The boys were taken to the hospital. They were badly burned on the feet by walking on the hot iron bars of the fire-escape. In the room of the Wells family was a sight that cannot easily be forgotten. In the middle of the floor knelt the mother, Mary Wells, and in her dead embrace were her children, Jane and Thomas. They had been suffocated and not a burn or blister defaced the pallor of their countenances. The nine dead bodies were loaded in the ambulances and taken to the Thirtieth-Street Station. The Coroner subsequently gave the friends permits for the removal of the dead. Snyder, the proprietor of the restaurant, a colored cook, named Brooks, and a waiter named Plunkett have been locked up on suspicion of wilfully causing the fire. It is alleged that the cook was drunk. Snyder had $1,000 insurance on his fixtures, which was more than they were worth. The policy expires September 24, and Snyder had the policy in his pocket when arrested.

Coroner Hanley this afternoon committed John J. Snyder, proprietor of the restaurant, and his cook, Walter Brooks, to the Tombs to await the inquest, which will be held Monday. Kerosene was plainly smelled on the stairway of the burned building.

ANOTHER FIRE IN NEW-YORK.

Fire broke out early this morning on the third and fourth floors of the four-story building 298 Broadway, occupied by Rappel Tuck & Sons, Art Publishers, causing damage to their stock to the amount of $10,000. On the second floor Landers, Frary & Clark, dealers in cutlery, suffered a loss of $2,000. Jacobs & Son, on the first floor, will lose $2,000 by water. The damage to the building was $2,000.

That Mail Robbery at St. Louis.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 19.—Postmaster Hyde was seen at his home late last night in regard to the reported mail robbery. He knew of the robbery, but said the only information he had received from Terre Haute was that there had been one registered pouch stolen from the mail car, and that it had been found an hour after the train had passed lying by the side of the track; cut open and rifled of its contents. The pouch was a through one from Albany, N. Y., to St. Louis. Its exact contents could not be ascertained, but the letters are reported as bearing for the most part remittances for cattle transactions, and in this case they would probably contain large sums of money. Many of the packages probably had remittances covering the value of several car loads of cattle, and this would swell the total amount to a considerable figure.

Boonville's Postmaster Ruined.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

HUNTINGBURG, Ind., Aug. 19.—The defalcation in the Boonville Post-Office approximates $6,500 and the bondsmen have settled it. Clerk Dewey took $600 of Postmaster Swint's undrawn salary. Mr. Swint is editor of the Boonville Enquirer, but on account of ill health left the entire management of the Post-Office to Dewey. Dewey had not made a report to the Government for 21 weeks. The robbery has completely ruined Postmaster Swint, who turns over to the bondsmen his paper and all his property except his household furniture. Dewey was infatuated with gambling. He left in Boonville about $1,000 in unpaid debts. Detectives are on his track, but it is doubtful if he will be captured.

EFFECTUAL SHARP-SHOOTING DONE.

A Rifleman Saves a Child's Life by Piercing Toy Balloons with Balls.

By Telegraph to the Freeman.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Sophie Schwab, a two-year-old child, involuntarily became a baloonist yesterday, and was wafted high up over the broad bosom of Lake Michigan. A rifleman saved the child's life. The accident took place at Sheffield Park, and was witnessed by 1,500 picknickers. An Italian peddler of toy balloons attempted to serve two purchasers at once, and let go his string of bright-colored globes. The cord got twisted about Sophie's left arm and also in her hair, and the buoyant rubber bubbles started heavenward taking the child with them. The mother shrieked and fainted. The bystanders stood horror-stricken, scarcely breathing as the balloons swept close to a large oak tree and the infant grasped a handful of twigs and checked her flight. A muscular young German ascended the tree in an instant, and crept out on the branch near the child. At this moment her puny strength gave out, and the balloon, suddenly released, went again upward at least 100 feet, drifting then out over the Lake. Augustus Koch, a sharp shooter, who was attending the picnic with his repeating rifle, hurriedly jumped into a skiff with two companions and pulled out into range. Koch succeeded in piercing several of the balloons, each successful shot helping the bunch to descend. Before it finally reached the water the boat was at the spot and Sophie did not even get her feet wet.

Quietness Reigns at Richmond, Texas.

RICHMOND, Tex., Aug. 19.—The situation is quiet here since the terrible riot, in which Sheriff Garvey and ex-Sheriff Biakeley lost their lives and several prominent citizens were wounded. The Light Guard of Houston are here. Governor Ross arrived yesterday, accompanied by the Brenham Light Guards. It is thought that the military will not be needed, at least for the present. As the Sheriff has been killed and his Deputy wounded, no arrests have been made, nor has an inquest been held to investigate the cause of death, though the parties have been buried. It is thought that all will be left to the Grand Jury for settlement.

Man Suffering From Hydrophobia.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

DANVERS, Mass., Aug. 19.—Gilman A. Kimball, of Middleton, is suffering from a violent attack of hydrophobia. He was bitten by his own dog three weeks ago and was taken with spasms in Boston Saturday while in a barber's chair, and the spasms are now constantly recurring. The dog bit him but slightly while playing and the wound was not considered serious.

THE STOCK AND MONEY MARKET.

Financial Doings on Wall-Street To-Day—The Closing Quotations.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Aug. 19.—The bad bank statement of Saturday with the new and severe cut in rates by the Chicago, Burlington & Northern Railroad conspired to give a decidedly weak tone to the stock market this morning, and first prices were generally ¼ and ⅜ per cent. lower than Saturday's figures, while North-western was down ⅞. The weakness did not bring any more activity with it, and while further declines were secured in most of the list they were for small fractions only, and North-western and Burlington & Quincy were particularly well held. Wabash preferred lost ½, which was afterward recovered, and Chicago gas lost ½ and Cotton Oil ⅝, but the movements in the remainder were entirely insignificent. At 11 o'clock the market was dull and steady.

IN THE JUDGE TERRY SHOOTING CASE.

What Chief Justice Fuller Said During an Interview Last Night.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 19.—Chief Justice Fuller passed through Pittsburg last night from Cresson Springs on his way to Chicago. When asked about the killing of ex-Judge Terry he said: "I had heard that Terry had uttered threats against Justice Field, but I did not know of them personally. I was surprised when I heard that Justice Field had been arrested. I cannot see what he had to do with the murder any more than any other spectator. Judge Sawyer has issued a habeas corpus and Justice Field will no doubt be released."

ACCIDENTS ON WESTERN RAILROADS.

Damage and Death Caused by Striking a Cow—Attempted Train-Wrecking.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

VINCENNES, Ind., Aug. 19.—Freight train No. 48 struck a cow yesterday morning at Montgomery station, on the Ohio & Mississippi Railroad, throwing the locomotive off the track. Eight cars were ditched and demolished. The locomotive is badly damaged. Three of the cars were filled with cattle and several animals were killed. Two men were killed, J. C. Lyons being literally mashed into a jelly, and C. W. Paulley so badly crushed that he died. The engineer and fireman saved themselves by jumping.

An attempt at train-wrecking is reported on the new Evansville & Richmond Railway, in course of erection through Elnora, about four miles out of Odon. Some miscreants placed a lot of rails upon the track, with the intention of wrecking the first train that came along, but several persons of the town of Odon borrowed a hand-car to visit Elnora, and were going over the new road at a terrific rate, when the car struck the obstructions, and was knocked into the air and the passengers were thrown in every direction. They were all injured.

OWATONNA, Minn., Aug. 19.—As a gravel train on the Northwestern Railway was backing into the gravel pit near here this morning part of the train became uncoupled from the engine on top of the grade and the train went flying down the incline and up again on the other track, running clear across the road and striking J. A. Eastman's house, which stood seven rods from the end of the track. The wing portion of the house was knocked to pieces and the main portion 11½ feet from its foundation. The plastering all over the house was cracked. The family had all gone up-stairs except a little girl who was seriously injured.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 19.—Serious loss of life was averted by the presence of mind of a switchman on the Northern Central Railroad this morning. Shifting engine No. 88 was standing on the main track at Lafayette station, near Calverton Stock Yards, when the Philadelphia Express, known as train No. 92, was sighted. Opinions differ as to the action of the shifter. Some say the engineer reversed the lever and jumped for his life; others that the passenger train struck the shifter and sent it on a wild backward journey. The shifter flew at lightning speed through three tunnels and through Fulton and Union Stations. The Popes Creek train was just pulling out, well filled with passengers. The switchman at Centre street seeing the locomotive running wild, opened the switch. The shifter crashed into a locomotive and two cars, driving them through the wall of a large meat house occupied by Nelson Morris & Company, of Chicago. No meats were stored there at the time. The two locomotives and cars are a total wreck and the damage to the meat house is $5,000. Total damage $30,000.

Of Interest to Old Soldiers.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Assistant Secretary Buzzy has rendered an important decision on the pension claim of Daniel B. Kaufman, late of Company A, Forty-Eighth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, which was brought before him on a motion for reconsideration. In his decision the Assistant Secretary rescinds Rule No. 135, made by Commissioner Black, September 4, 1885, and overrules the opinion of ex-Assistant Secretary Hawkins of the same case, that a "dishonorable discharge" from the service operates as a "bar to pension." He also holds that rule No. 135 was an erroneous interpretation of statutes granting pensions to the soldiers of the late war for disabilities incurred in the line of duty, and declares that the character of a soldier's discharge cannot affect his claim for pension on account of such disabilities. He holds that a "dishonorable discharge" is a penalty for a specific offense against the service, for which the soldier may be punished, but that the penalty cannot include, nor relate to a claim for pension based upon disability. The two things are held to be wholly distinct from each other, and are not governed by the same legal consideration. The opinion re-establishes the ruling of the department which prevailed through all administrations antidating the issuance of rule No. 135 of General Black.

Disciplined with a Buggy Trace.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WARRENTON, Ga., Aug. 19.—The people of Warren County have organized to get rid of the Mormons, who are not only making converts among the ignorant, but have induced some good citizens to join them. Last week 15 well-known citizens arranged themselves around the dwelling of Filmo Moore, a farmer living on a plantation belonging to Dr. H. W. Pilchet, in the Elim district. After waiting several hours, several persons were seen to leave the house. In a few seconds they were surrounded a marched to a swamp, into which they were taken and disciplined with a buggy trace. They were then ordered to leave the country at once.

Laird's Death was "Mysterious."

By Telegraph to the Freeman.

HASTINGS, Neb., Aug. 19.—An autopsy was held on the remains of Congressman Laird, who died here Saturday. The theory that he died of softening of the brain was dispelled by an examination of that organ, it being found in a perfectly healthy state. A number of physicians who have been in attendance at Mr. Laird's bedside attribute his death to blood poisoning, the result of a recent operation performed, but the cause of his death is still wrapped in mystery.

Our best grade is the very best made in this country and we charge 5 cents per pound more for these goods than other dealers for the reason that we pay more for them, and feel satisfied that most people would prefer to pay a trifle more when they know they are getting the best that can be had.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

ALL the actors in the Flack divorce scandal are absent from New-York. The unsavory mess thus gets a vacation and an airing.

FIFTY THOUSAND people arrived at Atlantic City, N. J., Saturday and yesterday, and more than 130,000 spent Sunday there. This was the biggest rush in the history of that famous watering place.

TAMMANY HALL as a censor of morals is an interesting and also an edifying spectacle. Let it keep on and hope for more bogus divorce cases to assist its purification.—Providence Journal.

And when all the unclean birds are turned out they will organize a new Tammany and whip the old Tammany out of its boots.

THE Pennsylvania weather service estimates that enough water has fallen in that state this summer to make a lake 1,000 miles square and 35 feet deep. The quantity that fell upon the mountain plateaus and declivities of the state during the three days of the Johnstown flood was 7,000,000,000 tons.

SULLIVAN is out on $1,000 bail. He was very willing to pay that amount of money in a fine. Perhaps he will not return to Mississippi. But he violated a law of this state. So he can yet be punished, if Gov. Hill possesses as much respect for his oath of office and the honor of his state as Gov. Lowry.

PRESIDENT HARRISON attended church yesterday in the little chapel at Deer Park. He afterwards took a two-mile walk in the mountains, accompanied by Private Secretary Halford, Attorney General Miller and others. He will start for Indianapolis Wednesday morning and arrive there at 11 o'clock at night.

WHEN the Democrats of Lehigh county held their convention last week, they first endorsed the free trade doctrine of Roger Mills, and then endorsed ex-Congressman Sowden who was boycotted by the party because he refused to vote for the Mills bill. The intelligence of the Democratic party, which regards all things as alike that wear the Democratic label, is too awful to contemplate.

THE latest estimate of the wheat crop of the United States is 500,000,000 bushels. This is 85,000,000 more than the crop of last year. We sent abroad 121,000,000 bushels of the crop of 1888, and expect to have 150,000,000 bushels this year in excess of the home supply. This is good news for Europe, where its own crop and that derived from Asia is very short. The world's supply of bread will not fail.

THE postal card is popular, and the government is obtaining it very cheaply. For the next four years the average consumption is estimated at $500,000,000 a year, and the average contract price for the two sizes is 40 cents a thousand. In the first year of the postal card the issue was 100,000,000, and the price was $1.39¾ per thousand. The "postal" has evidently come to stay, and even one cent letter postage will not crowd it out.

CONGRESSMAN LAIRD of Nebraska is dead. This makes the vacancies in the House even between the two parties, that caused by the death of Gay of Louisiana not having been filled. Laird has served in Congress three terms and was last fall elected to his fourth. His majority over the Democratic and anti-monopoly combination last fall was 9,756. His district cast 58,046 votes, or more than double the number cast in Georgia in 1886 for ten members.

IT is now believed in Elizabeth, N. J., that "Jack the Peeper," who has been haunting the windows of young ladies' sleeping rooms at night, is an imaginary being and nothing else. This is not unlikely. If half a dozen mischievous girls were to put their heads together to start a story of night visitations of a mysterious order, they would be responsible for a hundred visions of the nameless wretch. Timidity and hysteria could be relied upon to multiply him indefinitely.

SIGISMUND KAUFFMAN, a leading lawyer of New York, died in Paris on Saturday, aged 64 years. Mr. Kauffman came to the United States from Germany in 1848, and was admitted to the bar in 1852. He became interested in politics, and in 1860 was an elector on the Lincoln ticket. In 1870 he was the Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor. He has also served as Police Commissioner of Brooklyn and Commissioner of Emigration. His remains will be incinerated at Gotha and brought to New York.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN gets six months' liberty by the appeal of his lawyers to the Supreme Court of Mississippi. He improved it yesterday by taking a journey northward. He received a royal welcome in Cincinnati, where he had a few minutes to spare before taking the train for New York. He is under $1,000 bail to appear at court and pay $500 costs. He still hopes to escape with a small fine. His return to New York gives Gov. Hill the opportunity to execute the law upon him. He owes the state $1,000 and a year of hard labor, and the Governor has the right to remove the District Attorney who refuses or neglects to prosecutd him. Mississippi should no longer be allowed to shame New York by its higher regard for justice and decency.

GOV. HILL has not yet taken any action in the cases of the five condemned murderers of New York who are under orders to go to the gallows next Friday. His well known dislike of Friday as hangman's day will probably, however, impel him to break up the program before the fatal hour arrives. He may even commute the sentences of one or two. The most appropriate subject of clemency appears to be Packenham, who is an old man and never was guilty of crime before, and who murdered his wife in a drunken frenzy. The most hopeful one is Giblin, who shot the wife of a grocer in an attempt to recover a counterfeit bill that he had attempted to pass. His crime is regarded in New York as the most brutal of the series, and his hopefulness is not sustained by public sympathy. Nolan, Carolin and Lewis have apparently become resigned to their fate.

Nine Lives Lost by the Burning of a New-York Tenement.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Aug. 19.—Early this morning fire broke out in the kitchen of the restaurant on the store floor of the big five-story tenement at 305 Seventh-avenue. Nine of the 60 odd occupants of the house were burned to death, and it is a great wonder that many more did not lose their lives. The dead are: William Glennon, aged 60, burned to death; Nellie McGeoghan, 20 years, smothered; Mary Wells, 31, smothered; Jane Wells, 4, smothered; Thomas Wells, 2, smothered; Bertha Lustig, 40, burned to death; William McKee, 47, burned to death; Jane Jeffrey, 65, smothered; an unknown woman, about 45 years old, stout, fair complexion, smothered. The list of injured is William Glennon, 18 years, badly burned; J. Glennon, body burned and injured. The building was occupied by 13 families, who have been made temporarily homeless by the fire. The flames did not do very much damage to their household effects. The loss will not amount to more than $10,000. The fire originated in the rear of John Snyder's restaurant at an early hour when all the people in the house were sleeping soundly. Just how the fire started is as yet a mystery.

Less than half a block away on the corner of Twenty-Eighth-street and the Avenue stood policemen Warner and McCullogh, of the Thirteeth-Street Station. They heard a cry, which came from the building and looking in that direction saw a wall of fire beating against the front windows of the restaurant. A forked tongue of flame almost immediately shot out from the roof and lighted up the neighborhood with ghastly effect. With their clubs the officers beat in the front door, but a blaze shot out and kept them back. They tried the next door and in that way found an entrance, but up to this time hardly a sound was heard in the building. With their clubs the two blue-coats rapped in a frenzied way at all the doors they came to. Murmurings at first were heard, then a buzz of many voices, which finally swelled into a wail of terror and agony from men, women and children. Fire-escapes, leading from the burning building to the as yet untouched tenement next door, were filled up with half-naked people forced out of their rooms by the heat and flames. In response to alarms, which had in the meantime been sent out, there came to the scene a number of fire companies and several ambulances. Not one in the fated building escaped down the stairway, and the names ot the few who tried it are found in the list of the dead. The flames were extinguished easily by the firemen, but not before the work of death had been completed. The search for the dead in the charred and dripping building was at once commenced. Hysterical women looked for their lost ones and dry-eyed men, with anguish stamped upon every lineament of their stained faces, searched among the ruins they had once called home for the remains of one or two who were missing. The finding of the charred and contorted object which had once been flesh and blood and a link in the home circle was pitiful in the extreme. Few men stood, the strain and the women could hardly be restrained from inflicting injuries upon themselves. The first body found was that of old William Gennon. The remains were discovered by the side of the bed in his room on the second floor. He had risen to fly with his sons, but soon succumbed. The boys were taken to the hospital. They were badly burned on the feet by walking on the hot iron bars of the fire-escape. In the room of the Wells family was a sight that cannot easily be forgotten. In the middle of the floor knelt the mother, Mary Wells, and in her dead embrace were her children, Jane and Thomas. They had been suffocated and not a burn or blister defaced the pallor of their countenances. The nine dead bodies were loaded in the ambulances and taken to the Thirtieth-Street Station. The Coroner subsequently gave the friends permits for the removal of the dead. Snyder, the proprietor of the restaurant, a colored cook, named Brooks, and a waiter named Plunkett have been locked up on suspicion of wilfully causing the fire. It is alleged that the cook was drunk. Snyder had $1,000 insurance on his fixtures, which was more than they were worth. The policy expires September 24, and Snyder had the policy in his pocket when arrested.

Coroner Hanley this afternoon committed John J. Snyder, proprietor of the restaurant, and his cook, Walter Brooks, to the Tombs to await the inquest, which will be held Monday. Kerosene was plainly smelled on the stairway of the burned building.

ANOTHER FIRE IN NEW-YORK.

Fire broke out early this morning on the third and fourth floors of the four-story building 298 Broadway, occupied by Rappel Tuck & Sons, Art Publishers, causing damage to their stock to the amount of $10,000. On the second floor Landers, Frary & Clark, dealers in cutlery, suffered a loss of $2,000. Jacobs & Son, on the first floor, will lose $2,000 by water. The damage to the building was $2,000.

That Mail Robbery at St. Louis.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 19.—Postmaster Hyde was seen at his home late last night in regard to the reported mail robbery. He knew of the robbery, but said the only information he had received from Terre Haute was that there had been one registered pouch stolen from the mail car, and that it had been found an hour after the train had passed lying by the side of the track, cut open and rifled of its contents. The pouch was a through one from Albany, N. Y., to St. Louis. Its exact contents could not be ascertained, but the letters are reported as bearing for the most part remittances for cattle transactions, and in this case they would probably contain large sums of money. Many of the packages probably had remittances covering the value of several car loads of cattle, and this would swell the total amount to a considerable figure.

Boonville's Postmaster Ruined.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

HUNTINGBURG, Ind., Aug. 19.—The defalcation in the Boonville Post-Office approximates $6,500 and the bondsmen have settled it. Clerk Dewey took $600 of Postmaster Swint's undrawn salary. Mr. Swint is editor of the Boonville Enquirer, but on account of ill health left the entire management of the Post-Office to Dewey. Dewey had not made a report to the Government for 21 weeks. The robbery has completely ruined Postmaster Swint, who turns over to the bondsmen his paper and all his property except his household furniture. Dewey was infatuated with gambling. He left in Boonville about $1,000 in unpaid debts. Detectives are on his track, but it is doubtful if he will be captured.

EFFECTUAL SHARP-SHOOTING DONE.

A Rifleman Saves a Child's Life by Piercing Toy Balloons with Balls.

By Telegraph to the Freeman.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Sophie Schwab, a two-year-old child, involuntarily became a baloonist yesterday, and was wafted high up over the broad bosom of Lake Michigan. A rifleman saved the child's life. The accident took place at Sheffield Park, and was witnessed by 1,500 picknickers. An Italian pedpler of toy balloons attempted to serve two purchasers at once, and let go his string of bright-colored globes. The cord got twisted about Sophie's left arm and also in her hair, and the buoyant rubber bubbles started heavenward taking the child with them. The mother shrieked and fainted. The bystanders stood horror-stricken, scarcely breathing as the balloons swept close to a large oak tree and the infant grasped a handful of twigs and checked her flight. A muscular young German ascended the tree in an instant, and crept out on the branch near the child. At this moment her puny strength gave out, and the balloon, suddenly released, went again upward at least 100 feet, drifting then out over the Lake. Augustus Koch, a sharp shooter, who was attending the picnic with his repeating rifle, hurriedly jumped into a skiff with two companions and pulled out into range. Koch succeeded in piercing several of the balloons, each successful shot helping the bunch to descend. Before it finally reached the water the boat was at the spot and Sophie did not even get her feet wet.

Quietness Reigns at Richmond, Texas.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

RICHMOND, Tex., Aug. 19.—The situation is quiet here since the terrible riot, in which Sheriff Garvey and ex-Sheriff Blakeley lost their lives and several prominent citizens were wounded. The Light Guard of Houston are here. Governor Ross arrived yesterday, accompanied by the Brenham Light Guards. It is thought that the military will not be needed, at least for the present. As the Sheriff has been killed and his Deputy wounded, no arrests have been made, nor has an inquest been held to investigate the cause of death, though the parties have been buried. It is thought that all will be left to the Grand Jury for settlement.

THE STOCK AND MONEY MARKET.

Financial Doings on Wall-Street To-Day—The Closing Quotations.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Aug. 19.—The bad bank statement of Saturday with the new and severe cut in rates by the Chicago, Burlington & Northern Railroad conspired to give a decidedly weak tone to the stock market this morning, and first prices were generally ¼ and ⅜ per cent. lower than Saturday's figures, while North-western was down ⅞. The weakness did not bring any more activity with it, and while further declines were secured in most of the list they were for small fractions only, and North-western and Burlington & Quincy were particularly well held. Wabash preferred lost ½, which was afterward recovered, and Chicago gas lost ½ and Cotton Oil ⅜, but the movements in the remainder were entirely insignificent. At 11 o'clock the market was dull and steady.

What Chief Justice Fuller Said During an Interview Last Night.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 19.—Chief Justice Fuller passed through Pittsburg last night from Cresson Springs on his way to Chicago. When asked about the killing of ex-Judge Terry he said: "I had heard that Terry had uttered threats against Justice Field, but I did not know of them personally. I was surprised when I heard that Justice Field had been arrested. I cannot see what he had to do with the murder any more than any other spectator. Judge Sawyer has issued a habeas corpus and Justice Field will no doubt be released."

ACCIDENTS ON WESTERN RAILROADS.

Damage and Death Caused by Striking a Cow—Attempted Train-Wrecking.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

VINCENNES, Ind., Aug. 19.—Freight train No. 48 struck a cow yesterday morning at Montgomery station, on the Ohio & Mississippi Railroad, throwing the locomotive off the track. Eight cars were ditched and demolished. The locomotive is badly damaged. Three of the cars were filled with cattle and several animals were killed. Two men were killed, J. C. Lyons being literally mashed into a jelly, and C. W. Paulley so badly crushed that he died. The engineer and fireman saved themselves by jumping.

An attempt at train-wrecking is reported on the new Evansville & Richmond Railway, in course of erection through Elnora, about four miles out of Odon. Some miscreants placed a lot of rails upon the track, with the intention of wrecking the first train that came along, but several persons of the town of Odon borrowed a hand-car to visit Elnora, and were going over the new road at a terrific rate, when the car struck the obstructions, and was knocked into the air and the passengers were thrown in every direction. They were all injured.

OWATONNA, Minn., Aug. 19.—As a gravel train on the Northwestern Railway was backing into the gravel pit near here this morning part of the train became uncoupled from the engine on top of the grade and the train went flying down the incline and up again on the other track, running clear across the road and striking J. A. Eastman's house, which stood seven rods from the end of the track. The wing portion of the house was knocked to pieces and the main portion 11½ feet from its foundation. The plastering all over the house was cracked. The family had all gone up-stairs except a little girl who was seriously injured.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 19.—Serious loss of life was averted by the presence of mind of a switchman on the Northern Central Railroad this morning. Shifting engine No. 88 was standing on the main track at Lafayette station, near Calverton Stock Yards, when the Philadelphia Express, known as train No. 92, was sighted. Opinions differ as to the action of the shifter. Some say the engineer reversed the lever and jumped for his life; others that the passenger train struck the shifter and sent it on a wild backward journey. The shifter flew at lightning speed through three tunnels and through Fulton and Union Stations. The Popes Creek train was just pulling out, well filled with passengers. The switchman at Centre-street seeing the locomotive running wild, opened the switch. The shifter crashed into a locomotive and two cars, driving them through the wall of a large meat house occupied by Nelson Morris & Company, of Chicago. No meats were stored there at the time. The two locomotives and cars are a total wreck and the damage to the meat house is $5,000. Total damage $30,000.

Of Interest to Old Soldiers.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Assistant Secretary Buzzy has rendered an important decision on the pension claim of Daniel B. Kaufman, late of Company A, Forty-Eighth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, which was brought before him on a motion for reconsideration. In his decision the Assistant Secretary rescinds Rule No. 135, made by Commissioner Black, September 4, 1885, and overrules the opinion of ex-Assistant Secretary Hawkins of the same case, that a "dishonorable discharge" from the service operates as a "bar to pension." He also holds that rule No. 135 was an erroneous interpretation of statutes granting pensions to the soldiers of the late war for disabilities incurred in the line of duty, and declares that the character of a soldier's discharge cannot affect his claim for pension on account of such disabilities. He holds that a "dishonorable discharge" is a penalty for a specific offense against the service, for which the soldier may be punished, but that the penalty cannot include, nor relate to a claim for pension based upon disability. The two things are held to be wholly distinct from each other, and are not governed by the same legal consideration. The opinion re-establishes the ruling of the department which prevailed through all administrations antidating the issuance of rule No. 135 of General Black.

Disciplined with a Buggy Trace.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WARRENTON, Ga., Aug. 19.—The people of Warren County have organized to get rid of the Mormons, who are not only making converts among the ignorant, but have induced some good citizens to join them. Last week 15 well-known citizens arranged themselves around the dwelling of Filmo Moore, a farmer living on a plantation belonging to Dr. H. W. Pilchet, in the Elim district. After waiting several hours, several persons were seen to leave the house. In a few seconds they were surrounded a marched to a swamp, into which they were taken and disciplined with a buggy trace. They were then ordered to leave the country at once.

Laird's Death was "Mysterious."

By Telegraph to the Freeman.

HASTINGS, Neb., Aug. 19.—An autopsy was held on the remains of Congressman Laird, who died here Saturday. The theory that he died of softening of the brain was dispelled by an examination of that organ, it being found in a perfectly healthy state. A number of physicians who have been in attendance at Mr. Laird's bedside attribute his death to blood poisoning, the result of a recent operation performed, but the cause of his death is still wrapped in mystery.

A NEW ISSUE.

While Republican success in Buffalo will not insure the election of the Republican ticket in the state at large, a victory of that party without the aid of this city is not imaginable. The indifference shown to its wishes will naturally weaken the ticket in local contests.—Buffalo Courier, Dem.

This is really a new issue, and the Democratic party is entitled to full credit for raising it. The city of Buffalo is to be turned against the Republican party because of the slight put upon it in taking the state convention to Saratoga, and Syracuse, Rochester and Utica are to do likewise. How many other cities are going to fall into line with these we are not informed, but it is quite likely that Elmira, Binghamton, Cohoes, Long Island City and Ogdensburgh will conceive themselves aggrieved because they were not mentioned by the committee. They all have claims, and undoubtedly cherished fond hopes that their modesty in refusing to press them might win appreciation and cause the committee to give them an agreeable surprise. Kingston, we know, has been waiting many years for a state convention to come here, and has the right to expect it to come without the asking since it has become the second city in political importance in the state, being the only one besides Albany with a state capitol. But Kingston Republicans do not propose to go over to the Democracy on that account to-day, but are waiting the action of the Democratic committee. If that body of wise and eminent men shall decide to hold their party convention here, there will be such a flocking of Republicans to the Democratic standard as was never seen in any other state, realm or clime, and it will continue as long as the convention lasts. We will all be Democrats for the time being, with enthusiasm too ardent for repression.

Nevertheless, rather than have this question of locating a convention become the paramount party issue, THE FREEMAN renews its suggestion of a convention car fitted to all the railroad tracks in the state. This car could bring the convention to every city and important station, and give ample time to stop for drinks. And it is needless to say that the party which is the first to put its car on the rails with a convention organized for work, will sweep the state in the following campaign, and hold it for a century or two.

But we have another suggestion which is for the car of the Buffalo Courier alone. It is that the silly season will end when the work of the campaign begins.

PROTECTION WAGES.

Andrew Carnegie patiently bided his time till the labor difficulties in his iron works were settled, before proceeding to show the falseness of Democratic accusations that he was a hard and niggardly taskmaster. The strike, it will be remembered, was against a proposal to reduce wages to a level with those of other works. It continued until business had improved sufficiently to enable the employer to offer a compromise, which was accepted. Now that the strike is over, Mr. Carnegie brings forward his wage book for May last, before the strike began. Here are the figures:

	No. of men.	Total wages.	Average monthly wages.
Converting mill	57	$4,642 90	$81 45
27-inch Blooming mill	26	1,728 30	66 47
28-inch mill	32	1,909 73	59 68
33-inch beam mill	49	4,491 25	91 65
119-inch plate mill	27	2,312 80	85 93
Total	191	$15,084 98	$78 98

These are the wages actually paid. They cover sickness, absence and all losses of time. In two of the mills the average is over $1,000 a year, and for the whole force it is about $950. The lowest rate per day is $2.30, the highest $3.53. The free trade papers charged Mr. Carnegie with trying to cut wages down to the English scale. The English scale is a trifle over one-half of the wages paid by him in May, from which he proposed to take 10 per cent. Thanks to the influence of the election, business started up, and the full reduction was not necessitated.

NOBODY TO BE PUNISHED.

The fact that Judge Bookstaver of New York annulled the decree of divorce in the Flack case was proof that he believed a fraud had been committed on the Court, and yet he has done nothing toward punishing those who were guilty of the imposition. Though he may have no regard for himself, he ought at least to be jealous of the majesty of the law.—Philadelphia Record, Dem.

The Record can be excused for not understanding Democratic necessities in New York. A party that elected a District Attorney with the distinct understanding that he should not convict the boodle Aldermen, can hardly be expected to push the law against the more venial offense of conspiring to deprive a sick and defenseless woman, who has no political influence whatever, of her marital rights. Flack, Monell, Meeks and Jarvis, though temporarily out of Tammany, are as essential to Democratic success as they ever were, and it will not be prudent to press the law against them to a dangerous point. Mrs. Flack will secure a legal separation and an allowance sufficient for her support, and there the proceedings will end so far as the officials of New York are concerned. We are not without hope, however, that the Governor will remove Flack.

WHITE CAPS IN THIS STATE.

The White Caps have appeared in Tompkins county. The occasion of their visit comes as near justifying their action as any deed of lawlessness can be justified. The victim of their wrath was Frank Evarts, who lives at Podunk, a suburb of Trumansburg. He was a wife whipper, and his frequent acts of cruelty had at last caused his wife to escape from the house and take refuge among her relatives. The poor woman was so badly terrified that she dared neither to return home nor make a complaint against her husband, lest he should beat here more severely. She had no confidence in the protection of the law, for he had made himself a sort of invincible creature in her eyes, whom the law could not prevent from pounding her. The neighbors heard of the case from other sources, and decided to give him the only punishment that was available under the circumstances.

So a band of White Caps was temporarily organized and called at the Blue Beard's door. When he asked in response to their knock, "Who's there?" they answered that his wife was dangerously sick and wanted to see him. He imprudently opened the door, when he was instantly seized and badly thrashed. The gang did not drive him out of town, but simply made him swear "by all that was good and holy" that he would never, never beat his wife again. Then he was released. The wife is going home, and the whips have been carefully laid away for her future protection.

PROTECTION AS A LOCAL ISSUE.

McKinney, nominated for Governor of Virginia by the Democrats, is a Protectionist. Price, the Democratic nominee for Congress in the third Louisiana district, is a protectionist. Campbell, who is to be the Democratic nominee for Governor of Ohio, is a protectionist who voted for the Mills bill under compulsion, repented afterwards and refused a renomination because he expected a defeat, and saw his district carried by the Republicans by 1,000 majority at the last election. It is evident that the Democratic party is for protection in spots when called upon to treat it as a "local issue," though it is morally certain in the convention of 1892 to reiterate the platform of 1888 and place Mr. Cleveland upon it. The men from Texas, Mississippi, Arkansas, Tennessee and South Carolina will then be the masters of the party, and those who take a stand for protection in the solitude of a state or Congressional convention, will be awed into silence under the eyes of their party masters.

This is the protectionist year for the Democrats, and they will make the most of it, since there are no President or Congressmen to elect. Their conduct is an acknowledgment of the strength and popularity of the protection principle. But the party has not by any means subdued its hatred for industrial and business prosperity in those sections of the country that interfered with its great scheme of 1861-5. Free trade will continue to lift its hydra-head in national campaigns till the hammers of industry at the South have become sufficiently numerous to crush out the last semblance of life.

PUBLIC OPINION.

Mr. Powderly is out with his annual threat to resign the leadership of the Knights of Labor. But if he dosen't put his threat into execution before long, the total extinction of his following will deprive him of the opportunity.—Providence Journal.

Presently it will be in order to pass around the hat for a testimonial to that commendably prompt officer and accurate shooter, Deputy Marshal Nagle. The right man was in the right place last Wednesday morning, and we are all in his debt.—Hartford Courant.

The chances of Montana's going Democratic may be considerably affected by the fact that the wool clip this year amounts to 9,000,000 pounds, and the price is several cents more per pound than it was while Grover Cleveland and Roger Q. Mills were figuring for free wool.—Springfield Union.

One of our esteemed Democratic contemporaries speaks entertainingly of "Mr. Cleveland's Summer Outing." The gentleman's summer outing, it may be said, is very enjoyable, but in point of size, extent and significance it doesn't compare with the "outing" that Mr. Cleveland took last March.—Philadelphia Press.

The Brown-Sequard elixir comes just in time to serve the purpose of those who are becoming weary of the faith cure; and thus the fact is freshly illustrated that the scheme of modern civilization can be depended upon for a new civet to sweeten the imagination, as Lear says, whenever the latest prevailing one loses its charm.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

General John N. Knapp's election as Chairman of the Republican State Committee, on account of the resignation of Cornelius N. Bliss, is a deserved recognition of his arduous and faithful work as Chairman of the State Executive Committee. The General worked 20 hours of each 24 during last fall's campaign and then slept with one eye open. —New York Graphic.

Thus far the press of the country is wonderfully unanimous in declaring that Judge Terry of California only got his just deserts the other day when he was shot down by Marshal Nagle for assaulting Justice Field. Violent deaths are pretty sure to be the portion of those who perpetually insist upon living violent lives; a fact which the public cannot help recognizing.—Troy Times.

Immigrants to the Canadian Northwest may be treated as well by the Canadian government as by our own, but citizenship in the United States makes a powerful appeal to the imagination of the European seeking a home in a new land. For that reason the development of the Canadian Northwest, until our West has filled up, will be slower than it would otherwise be.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Mr. Wanamaker is not a believer in the notion that hard work kills men. It agrees with him and he enjoys it. His health is good. No vicious tastes tax it. There are no delights in tobacco for him. He does not drink wine or give it to anybody else to drink. In whatever company he may be, he never omits grace before eating. He amuses himself without the assistance of the stage. He has never attended the theatre or the circus. —Epoch.

The melancholy killing of young Pell in the Adirondack woods by Ellis Roberts, a boy of 17, who took him for a deer and shot him with fatal effect, has but one moral. It is not to give boys firearms for use in the woods unless men are sent along with them to see that they do no harm. The lesson is an old one. It may be said to be rarely, if ever, learned, and the present case is unlikely to be a deterrent to similar accidents in the future.—Brooklyn Eagle.

HAY FEVER SUFFERERS.

The number of people annually afflicted with this most annoying malady seems to be greatly on the increase. * * * The editor of this journal is an annual victim, and with a view to discover a specific cure, has tried numerous remedies. Of these Ely's Cream Balm is by all odds the quickest and most satisfactory, two applications usually allaying the usual symptoms in the nose and eyes. We would recommend its use by all subject to hay fever, and we gladly bear unsolicited testimony to its efficacy in our own case. * * *—Media, Pa., Record.

The seeds of sickness and of death
In a disordered mouth are sown;
When bad the teeth or foul the breath,
Both soul and body lose their tone.
Till Sozodont's brought into play,
And sweeps those dire effects away.

You hardly realize that it is medicine, when taking Carter's Little Liver Pills; they are very small; no bad effects; all troubles from torpid liver are relieved by their use.

To the Republican Electors of the State of New York:

The Republican Electors of the state of New York and all others who may desire to unite with them in upholding the principles of the Republican party, as declared in the platform adopted by the last National Convention, are hereby requested to send delegates to a State Convention to be held at Saratoga Springs on September 25, 1889, at 12 o'clock, noon, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Secretary of State, Comptroller, State Treasurer, Attorney-General, State Engineer and Surveyor, and a Judge of the Court of Appeals; also for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.

Each Assembly District in the state will be entitled to representation in accordance with the basis established by the State Convention of 1885, and upon which subsequent conventions have been held.

Delegates are apportioned among the counties of this section of the state as follows:

" 2d "	5
" 3d "	4

A NEW ISSUE.

While Republican success in Buffalo will not insure the election of the Republican ticket in the state at large, a victory of that party without the aid of this city is not imaginable. The indifference shown to its wishes will naturally weaken the ticket in local contests.—Buffalo Courier, Dem.

This is really a new issue, and the Democratic party is entitled to full credit for raising it. The city of Buffalo is to be turned against the Republican party because of the slight put upon it in taking the state convention to Saratoga, and Syracuse, Rochester and Utica are to do likewise. How many other cities are going to fall into line with these we are not informed, but it is quite likely that Elmira, Binghamton, Cohoes, Long Island City and Ogdensburgh will conceive themselves aggrieved because they were not mentioned by the committee. They all have claims, and undoubtedly cherished fond hopes that their modesty in refusing to press them might win appreciation and cause the committee to give them an agreeable surprise. Kingston, we know, has been waiting many years for a state convention to come here, and has the right to expect it to come without the asking since it has become the second city in political importance in the state, being the only one besides Albany with a state capitol. But Kingston Republicans do not propose to go over to the Democracy on that account to-day, but are waiting the action of the Democratic committee. If that body of wise and eminent men shall decide to hold their party convention here, there will be such a flocking of Republicans to the Democratic standard as was never seen in any other state, realm or clime, and it will continue as long as the convention lasts. We will all be Democrats for the time being, with enthusiasm too ardent for repression.

Nevertheless, rather than have this question of locating a convention become the paramount party issue, THE FREEMAN renews its suggestion of a convention car fitted to all the railroad tracks in the state. This car could bring the convention to every city and important station, and give ample time to stop for drinks. And it is needless to say that the party which is the first to put its car on the rails with a convention organized for work, will sweep the state in the following campaign, and hold it for a century or two.

But we have another suggestion which is for the car of the Buffalo Courier alone. It is that the silly season will end when the work of the campaign begins.

PROTECTION WAGES.

Andrew Carnegie patiently bided his time till the labor difficulties in his iron works were settled, before proceeding to show the falseness of Democratic accusations that he was a hard and niggardly taskmaster. The strike, it will be remembered, was against a proposal to reduce wages to a level with those of other works. It continued until business had improved sufficiently to enable the employer to offer a compromise, which was accepted. Now that the strike is over, Mr. Carnegie brings forward his wage book for May last, before the strike began. Here are the figures:

	No. of men.	Total wages.	Average monthly wages.
Converting mill	57	$4,642 90	$81 45
27-inch Blooming mill	26	1,728 30	66 47
28-inch mill	32	1,909 73	59 68
33-inch beam mill	49	4,491 25	91 65
119-inch plate mill	27	2,312 80	85 93
Total	191	$15,084 98	$78 98

These are the wages actually paid. They cover sickness, absence and all losses of time. In two of the mills the average is over $1,000 a year, and for the whole force it is about $950. The lowest rate per day is $2.30, the highest $3.53. The free trade papers charged Mr. Carnegie with trying to cut wages down to the English scale. The English scale is a trifle over one-half of the wages paid by him in May, from which he proposed to take 10 per cent. Thanks to the influence of the election, business started up, and the full reduction was not necessitated.

NOBODY TO BE PUNISHED.

The fact that Judge Bookstaver of New York annulled the decree of divorce in the Flack case was proof that he believed a fraud had been committed on the Court, and yet he has done nothing toward punishing those who were guilty of the imposition. Though he may have no regard for himself, he ought at least to be jealous of the majesty of the law.—Philadelphia Record, Dem.

The Record can be excused for not understanding Democratic necessities in New York. A party that elected a District Attorney with the distinct understanding that he should not convict the boodle Aldermen, can hardly be expected to push the law against the more venial offense of conspiring to deprive a sick and defenseless woman, who has no political influence whatever, of her marital rights. Flack, Monell, Meeks and Jarvis, though temporarily out of Tammany, are as essential to Democratic success as they ever were, and it will not be prudent to press the law against them to a dangerous point. Mrs. Flack will secure a legal separation and an allowance sufficient for her support, and there the proceedings will end so far as the officials of New York are concerned. We are not without hope, however, that the Governor will remove Flack.

WHITE CAPS IN THIS STATE.

The White Caps have appeared in Tompkins county. The occasion of their visit comes as near justifying their action as any deed of lawlessness can be justified. The victim of their wrath was Frank Evarts, who lives at Podunk, a suburb of Trumansburg. He was a wife whipper, and his frequent acts of cruelty had at last caused his wife to escape from the house and take refuge among her relatives. The poor woman was so badly terrified that she dared neither to return home nor make a complaint against her husband, lest he should beat here more severely. She had no confidence in the protection of the law, for he had made himself a sort of invincible creature in her eyes, whom the law could not prevent from pounding her. The neighbors heard of the case from other sources, and decided to give him the only punishment that was available under the circumstances.

So a band of White Caps was temporarily organized and called at the Blue Beard's door. When he asked in response to their knock, "Who's there?" they answered that his wife was dangerously sick and wanted to see him. He imprudently opened the door, when he was instantly seized and badly thrashed. The gang did not drive him out of town, but simply made him swear "by all that was good and holy" that he would never, never beat his wife again. Then he was released. The wife is going home, and the whips have been carefully laid away for her future protection.

PROTECTION AS A LOCAL ISSUE.

McKinney, nominated for Governor of Virginia by the Democrats, is a Protectionist. Price, the Democratic nominee for Congress in the third Louisiana district, is a protectionist. Campbell, who is to be the Democratic nominee for Governor of Ohio, is a protectionist who voted for the Mills bill under compulsion, repented afterwards and refused a renomination because he expected a defeat, and saw his district carried by the Republicans by 1,000 majority at the last election. It is evident that the Democratic party is for protection in spots when called upon to treat it as a "local issue," though it is morally certain in the convention of 1892 to reiterate the platform of 1888 and place Mr. Cleveland upon it. The men from Texas, Mississippi, Arkansas, Tennessee and South Carolina will then be the masters of the party, and those who take a stand for protection in the solitude of a state or Congressional convention, will be awed into silence under the eyes of their party masters.

This is the protectionist year for the Democrats, and they will make the most of it, since there are no President or Congressmen to elect. Their conduct is an acknowledgment of the strength and popularity of the protection principle. But the party has not by any means subdued its hatred for industrial and business prosperity in those sections of the country that interfered with its great scheme of 1861-5. Free trade will continue to lift its hydra-head in national campaigns till the hammers of industry at the South have become sufficiently numerous to crush out the last semblance of life.

PUBLIC OPINION.

Mr. Powderly is out with his annual threat to resign the leadership of the Knights of Labor. But if he dosen't put his threat into execution before long, the total extinction of his following will deprive him of the opportunity.—Providence Journal.

Presently it will be in order to pass around the hat for a testimonial to that commendably prompt officer and accurate shooter, Deputy Marshal Nagle. The right man was in the right place last Wednesday morning, and we are all in his debt.—Hartford Courant.

The chances of Montana's going Democratic may be considerably affected by the fact that the wool clip this year amounts to 9,000,000 pounds, and the price is several cents more per pound than it was while Grover Cleveland and Roger Q. Mills were figuring for free wool.—Springfield Union.

One of our esteemed Democratic contemporaries speaks entertainingly of "Mr. Cleveland's Summer Outing." The gentleman's summer outing, it may be said, is very enjoyable, but in point of size, extent and significance it doesn't compare with the "outing" that Mr. Cleveland took last March.—Philadelphia Press.

The Brown-Sequard elixir comes just in time to serve the purpose of those who are becoming weary of the faith cure; and thus the fact is freshly illustrated that the scheme of modern civilization can be depended upon for a new civet to sweeten the imagination, as Lear says, whenever the latest prevailing one loses its charm.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

General John N. Knapp's election as Chairman of the Republican State Committee, on account of the resignation of Cornelius N. Bliss, is a deserved recognition of his arduous and faithful work as Chairman of the State Executive Committee. The General worked 20 hours of each 24 during last fall's campaign and then slept with one eye open.—New York Graphic.

Thus far the press of the country is wonderfully unanimous in declaring that Judge Terry of California only got his just deserts the other day when he was shot down by Marshal Nagle for assaulting Justice Field. Violent deaths are pretty sure to be the portion of those who perpetually insist upon living violent lives; a fact which the public cannot help recognizing.—Troy Times.

Immigrants to the Canadian Northwest may be treated as well by the Canadian government as by our own, but citizenship in the United States makes a powerful appeal to the imagination of the European seeking a home in a new land. For that reason the development of the Canadian Northwest, until our West has filled up, will be slower than it would otherwise be.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Mr. Wanamaker is not a believer in the notion that hard work kills men. It agrees with him and he enjoys it. His health is good. No vicious tastes tax it. There are no delights in tobacco for him. He does not drink wine or give it to anybody else to drink. In whatever company he may be, he never omits grace before eating. He amuses himself without the assistance of the stage. He has never attended the theatre or the circus.—Epoch.

The melancholy killing of young Pell in the Adirondack woods by Ellis Roberts, a boy of 17, who took him for a deer and shot him with fatal effect, has but one moral. It is not to give boys firearms for use in the woods unless men are sent along with them to see that they do no harm. The lesson is an old one. It may be said to be rarely, if ever, learned, and the present case is unlikely to be a deterrent to similar accidents in the future.—Brooklyn Eagle.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

To the Republican Electors of the State of New York:

The Republican Electors of the state of New York and all others who may desire to unite with them in upholding the principles of the Republican party, as declared in the platform adopted by the last National Convention, are hereby requested to send delegates to a State Convention to be held at Saratoga Springs on September 25, 1889, at 12 o'clock, noon, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Secretary of State, Comptroller, State Treasurer, Attorney-General, State Engineer and Surveyor, and a Judge of the Court of Appeals; also for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.

Each Assembly District in the state will be entitled to representation in accordance with the basis established by the State Convention of 1885, and upon which subsequent conventions have been held.

Delegates are apportioned among the counties of this section of the state as follows:

Ulster, 1st district	5
" 2d "	5
" 3d "	4
Greene	5
Delaware	8
Schoharie	5
Dutchess, 1st district	6
" 2d "	6
Orange, 1st district	7
" 2d "	6

A NEW ISSUE.

While Republican success in Buffalo will not insure the election of the Republican ticket in the state at large, a victory of that party without the aid of this city is not imaginable. The indifference shown to its wishes will naturally weaken the ticket in local contests.—Buffalo Courier, Dem.

This is really a new issue, and the Democratic party is entitled to full credit for raising it. The city of Buffalo is to be turned against the Republican party because of the slight put upon it in taking the state convention to Saratoga, and Syracuse, Rochester and Utica are to do likewise. How many other cities are going to fall into line with these we are not informed, but it is quite likely that Elmira, Binghamton, Cohoes, Long Island City and Ogdensburgh will conceive themselves aggrieved because they were not mentioned by the committee. They all have claims, and undoubtedly cherished fond hopes that their modesty in refusing to press them might win appreciation and cause the committee to give them an agreeable surprise. Kingston, we know, has been waiting many years for a state convention to come here, and has the right to expect it to come without the asking since it has become the second city in political importance in the state, being the only one besides Albany with a state capitol. But Kingston Republicans do not propose to go over to the Democracy on that account to-day, but are waiting the action of the Democratic committee. If that body of wise and eminent men shall decide to hold their party convention here, there will be such a flocking of Republicans to the Democratic standard as was never seen in any other state, realm or clime, and it will continue as long as the convention lasts. We will all be Democrats for the time being, with enthusiasm too ardent for repression.

Nevertheless, rather than have this question of locating a convention become the paramount party issue, THE FREEMAN renews its suggestion of a convention car fitted to all the railroad tracks in the state. This car could bring the convention to every city and important station, and give ample time to stop for drinks. And it is needless to say that the party which is the first to put its car on the rails with a convention organized for work, will sweep the state in the following campaign, and hold it for a century or two.

But we have another suggestion which is for the ear of the Buffalo Courier alone. It is that the silly season will end when the work of the campaign begins.

PROTECTION WAGES.

Andrew Carnegie patiently bided his time till the labor difficulties in his iron works were settled, before proceeding to show the falseness of Democratic accusations that he was a hard and niggardly taskmaster. The strike, it will be remembered, was against a proposal to reduce wages to a level with those of other works. It continued until business had improved sufficiently to enable the employer to offer a compromise, which was accepted. Now that the strike is over, Mr. Carnegie brings forward his wage book for May last, before the strike began. Here are the figures:

	No. of men.	Total wages.	Average monthly wages.
Converting mill	57	$4,642 90	$81 45
27-inch Blooming mill	26	1,728 30	66 47
28-inch mill	32	1,909 73	59 68
33-inch beam mill	49	4,491 25	91 65
119-inch plate mill	27	2,312 80	85 93
Total	191	$15,084 98	$78 98

These are the wages actually paid. They cover sickness, absence and all losses of time. In two of the mills the average is over $1,000 a year, and for the whole force it is about $950. The lowest rate per day is $2.30, the highest $3.53. The free trade papers charged Mr. Carnegie with trying to cut wages down to the English scale. The English scale is a trifle over one-half of the wages paid by him in May, from which he proposed to take 10 per cent. Thanks to the influence of the election, business started up, and the full reduction was not necessitated.

NOBODY TO BE PUNISHED.

The fact that Judge Bookstaver of New York annulled the decree of divorce in the Flack case was proof that he believed a fraud had been committed on the Court, and yet he has done nothing toward punishing those who were guilty of the imposition. Though he may have no regard for himself, he ought at least to be jealous of the majesty of the law.—Philadelphia Record, Dem.

The Record can be excused for not understanding Democratic necessities in New York. A party that elected a District Attorney with the distinct understanding that he should not convict the boodle Aldermen, can hardly be expected to push the law against the more venial offense of conspiring to deprive a sick and defenseless woman, who has no political influence whatever, of her marital rights. Flack, Monell, Meeks and Jarvis, though temporarily out of Tammany, are as essential to Democratic success as they ever were, and it will not be prudent to press the law against them to a dangerous point. Mrs. Flack will secure a legal separation and an allowance sufficient for her support, and there the proceedings will end so far as the officials of New York are concerned. We are not without hope, however, that the Governor will remove Flack.

WHITE CAPS IN THIS STATE.

The White Caps have appeared in Tompkins county. The occasion of their visit comes as near justifying their action as any deed of lawlessness can be justified. The victim of their wrath was Frank Evarts, who lives at Podunk, a suburb of Trumansburg. He was a wife whipper, and his frequent acts of cruelty had at last caused his wife to escape from the house and take refuge among her relatives. The poor woman was so badly terrified that she dared neither to return home nor make a complaint against her husband, lest he should beat here more severely. She had no confidence in the protection of the law, for he had made himself a sort of invincible creature in her eyes, whom the law could not prevent from pounding her. The neighbors heard of the case from other sources, and decided to give him the only punishment that was available under the circumstances.

So a band of White Caps was temporarily organized and called at the Blue Beard's door. When he asked in response to their knock, "Who's there?" they answered that his wife was dangerously sick and wanted to see him. He imprudently opened the door, when he was instantly seized and badly thrashed. The gang did not drive him out of town, but simply made him swear "by all that was good and holy" that he would never, never beat his wife again. Then he was released. The wife is going home, and the whips have been carefully laid away for her future protection.

PROTECTION AS A LOCAL ISSUE.

McKinney, nominated for Governor of Virginia by the Democrats, is a Protectionist. Price, the Democratic nominee for Congress in the third Louisiana district, is a protectionist. Campbell, who is to be the Democratic nominee for Governor of Ohio, is a protectionist who voted for the Mills bill under compulsion, repented afterwards and refused a renomination because he expected a defeat, and saw his district carried by the Republicans by 1,000 majority at the last election. It is evident that the Democratic party is for protection in spots when called upon to treat it as a "local issue," though it is morally certain in the convention of 1892 to reiterate the platform of 1888 and place Mr. Cleveland upon it. The men from Texas, Mississippi, Arkansas, Tennessee and South Carolina will then be the masters of the party, and those who take a stand for protection in the solitude of a state or Congressional convention, will be awed into silence under the eyes of their party masters.

This is the protectionist year for the Democrats, and they will make the most of it, since there are no President or Congressmen to elect. Their conduct is an acknowledgment of the strength and popularity of the protection principle. But the party has not by any means subdued its hatred for industrial and business prosperity in those sections of the country that interfered with its great scheme of 1861-5. Free trade will continue to lift its hydra-head in national campaigns till the hammers of industry at the South have become sufficiently numerous to crush out the last semblance of life.

PUBLIC OPINION.

Mr. Powderly is out with his annual threat to resign the leadership of the Knights of Labor. But if he dosen't put his threat into execution before long, the total extinction of his following will deprive him of the opportunity.—Providence Journal.

Presently it will be in order to pass around the hat for a testimonial to that commendably prompt officer and accurate shooter, Deputy Marshal Nagle. The right man was in the right place last Wednesday morning, and we are all in his debt.—Hartford Courant.

The chances of Montana's going Democratic may be considerably affected by the fact that the wool clip this year amounts to 9,000,000 pounds, and the price is several cents more per pound than it was while Grover Cleveland and Roger Q. Mills were figuring for free wool.—Springfield Union.

One of our esteemed Democratic contemporaries speaks entertainingly of "Mr. Cleveland's Summer Outing." The gentleman's summer outing, it may be said, is very enjoyable, but in point of size, extent and significance it doesn't compare with the "outing" that Mr. Cleveland took last March.—Philadelphia Press.

The Brown-Sequard elixir comes just in time to serve the purpose of those who are becoming weary of the faith cure; and thus the fact is freshly illustrated that the scheme of modern civilization can be depended upon for a new civet to sweeten the imagination, as Lear says, whenever the latest prevailing one loses its charm.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

General John N. Knapp's election as Chairman of the Republican State Committee, on account of the resignation of Cornelius N. Bliss, is a deserved recognition of his arduous and faithful work as Chairman of the State Executive Committee. The General worked 20 hours of each 24 during last fall's campaign and then slept with one eye open. —New York Graphic.

Thus far the press of the country is wonderfully unanimous in declaring that Judge Terry of California only got his just deserts the other day when he was shot down by Marshal Nagle for assaulting Justice Field. Violent deaths are pretty sure to be the portion of those who perpetually insist upon living violent lives; a fact which the public cannot help recognizing.—Troy Times.

Immigrants to the Canadian Northwest may be treated as well by the Canadian government as by our own, but citizenship in the United States makes a powerful appeal to the imagination of the European seeking a home in a new land. For that reason the development of the Canadian Northwest, until our West has filled up, will be slower than it would otherwise be.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Mr. Wanamaker is not a believer in the notion that hard work kills men. It agrees with him and he enjoys it. His health is good. No vicious tastes tax it. There are no delights in tobacco for him. He does not drink wine or give it to anybody else to drink. In whatever company he may be, he never omits grace before eating. He amuses himself without the assistance of the stage. He has never attended the theatre or the circus. —Epoch.

The melancholy killing of young Pell in the Adirondack woods by Ellis Roberts, a boy of 17, who took him for a deer and shot him with fatal effect, has but one moral. It is not to give boys firearms for use in the woods unless men are sent along with them to see that they do no harm. The lesson is an old one. It may be said to be rarely, if ever, learned, and the present case is unlikely to be a deterrent to similar accidents in the future.—Brooklyn Eagle.

We would recommend its use by all subject to hay fever, and we gladly bear unsolicited testimony to its efficacy in our own case. * * *—Media, Pa., Record.

General Boulanger Makes an Address in London—The Austro-German Treaty Modified—A Mennonite's Sharp Practice—Mary Anderson's Condition, etc.

Attempts have been made to hush up a deplorable military blunder, by which a soldier of the Thirteenth Hussars, of Austria, has been killed, while 26 of his comrades and 87 horses were more or less badly injured. It seems that on July 30 the Thirteenth Hussar Regiment, which is quartered at Budapest, was being inspected. The exercises lasted two hours, and were well executed, but when men and horses were quite exhausted from their work, Colonel Von Illes unexpectedly gave the command for a charge at full gallop. The animals were too tired to answer to the spur. Many of them broke down, others tried to jump over those on the ground, others shied and dashed out of the ranks. All this passed so rapidly that before the trumpet could sound a halt the ground was strewn with dismounted troopers and injured horses. Besides the huzzar who has died, there are three others in hospital who are not expected to recover from their injuries, 13 who are suffering from fractures, and 10 from slighter wounds. Out of the 87 chargers which had to be consigned to the veterinary hospital, a considerable number will, no doubt, be unfit for further service.

The incoming class will be by far the largest which ever entered Yale. The principal thing which is troubling the Faculty is how to accommodate them all. The way out of the difficulty which it has been decided to adopt is to drop the lowest 20 candidates. In past years there have always been a great number of men admitted with numerous conditions which they were allowed to work off during the year, but the heavily conditioned men will stand a very poor chance of getting in now.

Here is the way "violent deaths" in New-York for one year—1888—tabulate:

The advantages of money are nowhere more apparent than among the dwellers on Fifth-avenue, New-York City. Cornelius Vanderbilt has just purchased three houses near his own on that fashionable thoroughfare—not to extend his ball-room, as rumor had it, but to protect himself from the encroachments of trade, which, being no respecter of persons or of places, is gradually taking possession of Fifth as well as of more plebeian avenues.

J. Landis, a Mennonite of Worcester township, Pa., called on Magistrate Urner, Norristown, day before yesterday, and confessed having shot a rabbit out of season. He was fined $5, which he paid. Then he claimed $2.50 informer's fee, which he got. Then he said he had given the rabbit to his son, who had sold it to another man, so that they were violators of the law, and he was entitled to two more fees as informer. He got the $5 additional.

The Presbyterian denomination takes special interest in the celebration of the one hundred and sixty-third anniversary of the colonial log college at Hartsville, Pa., the predecessor of Princeton, which takes place on September 5. The log college was a hut built by the Rev. William Tennent, in which to educate his four sons for the ministry.

Hyndman, Bedford County, Pa., has a law and order society which has forbidden Sunday sales of cigars, candies, etc. On Sunday H. R. Hyland, a druggist, placed upon his cigar case a bottle of pills labeled "Law and Order Pills." He sold the pills for five cents each, and gave way that amount of merchandise with each pill. The society will go to law about it.

The Czar has conferred the Cross of St. Stanislas upon ex-Captain Grueff, the notorious abductor of Prince Alexander of Bulgaria, and a persistent plotter against the present regime in Bulgaria. This act of the Czar is regarded as one of open hostility to Bulgaria, as well as a menace to the Porte, Grueff being a Turkish outlaw.

In England, Justice Hawkins has just had occasion to sit in the case of a prize fighter who struck his opponent a blow which caused the latter's death. He was adjudged guilty of manslaughter. The fact that a man puts up his hands for defense or offense ceases to be a justification for a blow when the parties are in the prize ring.

The objection against making lead pencils out of paper instead of wood has been overcome. One of the difficulties has been the toughness of the paper covering and its consequent resistance to the action of a knife. By a new process the molecular cohesion of the paper is modified in such a manner that it can be cut as easily as cedar wood.

A Miss Rose Flynn, who lives with John Ardell's family in Bellefonte, Pa., saw a fire kindled by a stroke of lightning on the cupola of the Ardell mansion, last night. She ran to the stable, got the hose, attached it and had a stream on the flames before the family could fairly realize the peril.

Of Naval Interest.

The Chicago has developed new trouble with its "boat" apparatus. It now appears that in rigging out there is a parbuckling against the side not previously accounted for. This means an additional three weeks' stay at the yard before any chance arises to leave for Newport. The Chicago is having a harder time of it than all the new ships so far turned out.

The United States practice ship Chase, with the revenue cutter cadets on board, arrived in Gardiner's Bay last Tuesday from the Azores. The Chase made a most remarkably quick run of it from New-Bedford to Lisbon and almost as good a one on the return trip. During the cruise the Madeiras and the Azores were touched at besides Lisbon.

The work on the Galena is being pushed along. The vessel's new spars are not only in place, but all the rigging is set up and rattled down. The Galena's complement of officers and men is now about full, and what with a few minor repairs and furnishing the vessel can be gotten off inside of three days.

A Veritable Living Skeleton.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 19.—Robert Marvel, the Octogenarian of Pike township, passed the sixty-seventh day of his fast yesterday. During the past week the hard, bony substance which appeared in his veins when he was first attacked by paralysis has increased and is now felt at intervals of two or three inches all over his body. He is a veritable living skeleton. He has not spoken a word since June 14, and during the past two weeks has lain almost motionless. In that time he has drank, probably, three pints of water, but nothing else has passed into his stomach.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS.

ON THE DIAMOND, THE RACE TRACK AND CINDER PATH.

Cross County Association Matters—The Records of the National and American Leagues To Date—Points About Runners—Nags That Can Go Fast—Races Yet to Come.

The Games Committeemen of the National Cross-Country Association have the power to make any change in the date, events or arrangements of the proposed athletic meeting which is announced for Saturday, October 12, on the grounds of the Staten Island Athletic Club, and, as it is desired to have the hearty co-operation of every organization in the country in making this meeting a pronounced success, it is highly probable that the date of the event will be changed to October 26, as the Riverside Athletic Club, of Newark, N. J., has claimed the announced date, October 12, and the National Cross-Country Association of America does not wish to clash with any club, but desires the hearty good will of all reputable amateur organizations.

Hotel keepers at various summer resorts now give impromptu athletic contests. Any level field is suitable for holding them, and as there are so many athletes of various grades of athletic ability summering at present, if a few happen to meet at a place games are easily arranged. In nearly all cases the hotel proprietor has given the prizes, which, of course, the athletes do not object to. If matters in this line advance so much next season as they have this one, athletes will have more competitions when away on their vacations than they can find in the active Metropolis.

John F. Huneker, of the Athletic Club of the Schuylkill Navy, will officiate as Referee at the annual amateur championship meeting which is to be held at Travers Island, on the grounds of the New-York Athletic Club, on Saturday, September 14. This is a wide departure from the usual stereotyped selection.

The recently-organized Jersey City Star Athletic Club has elected the following officers: James Mahoney, President; Otto Schwoerer, Vice-President; William Fritzer, Recording Secretary; Andrew Horwedel, Corresponding Secretary; John Dodenhoff, Financial Secretary; James Hayden, Treasurer.

Frank Nelson amateur runner, who is a member of the Scottish-American Athletic Club of Jersey City, has given up the cinder path and purchased a bicycle. He will compete in amateur races by next spring.

Sleepy Hollow Cemetery.

[From the Fishkill Standard.]

The trustees of the Sleepy Hollow Cemetery at Tarrytown have preserved carefully some earthworks on the grounds which were thrown up by American patriots in 1777, and which were a part of the machinery of the American Revolution. The works have been lately decorated with a flag-staff and a mounted cannon. The cannon itself has a history. It is one of the first steel cannons ever made. It cost to make it over $4,000. Its inventor was made a member of the Legion of Honor of France by Napoleon III because he proved by this cannon the adaptability of steel to artillery purposes. Battle Hill, as now decorated, is attracting a good deal of attention.

General Boulanger Makes an Address in London—The Austro-German Treaty Modified—A Mennonite's Sharp Practice—Mary Anderson's Condition, etc.

Attempts have been made to hush up a deplorable military blunder, by which a soldier of the Thirteenth Hussars, of Austria, has been killed, while 26 of his comrades and 87 horses were more or less badly injured. It seems that on July 30 the Thirteenth Hussar Regiment, which is quartered at Budapest, was being inspected. The exercises lasted two hours, and were well executed, but when men and horses were quite exhausted from their work, Colonel Von Illes unexpectedly gave the command for a charge at full gallop. The animals were too tired to answer to the spur. Many of them broke down, others tried to jump over those on the ground, others shied and dashed out of the ranks. All this passed so rapidly that before the trumpet could sound a halt the ground was strewn with dismounted troopers and injured horses. Besides the huzzar who has died, there are three others in hospital who are not expected to recover from their injuries, 13 who are suffering from fractures, and 10 from slighter wounds. Out of the 87 chargers which had to be consigned to the veterinary hospital, a considerable number will, no doubt, be unfit for further service.

The incoming class will be by far the largest which ever entered Yale. The principal thing which is troubling the Faculty is how to accommodate them all. The way out of the difficulty which it has been decided to adopt is to drop the lowest 20 candidates. In past years there have always been a great number of men admitted with numerous conditions which they were allowed to work off during the year, but the heavily conditioned men will stand a very poor chance of getting in now.

The advantages of money are nowhere more apparent than among the dwellers on Fifth-avenue, New-York City. Cornelius Vanderbilt has just purchased three houses near his own on that fashionable thoroughfare—not to extend his ball-room, as rumor had it, but to protect himself from the encroachments of trade, which, being no respecter of persons or of places, is gradually taking possession of Fifth as well as of more plebeian avenues.

J. Landis, a Mennonite of Worcester township, Pa., called on Magistrate Urner, Norristown, day before yesterday, and confessed having shot a rabbit out of season. He was fined $5, which he paid. Then he claimed $2.50 informer's fee, which he got. Then he said he had given the rabbit to his son, who had sold it to another man, so that they were violators of the law, and he was entitled to two more fees as informer. He got the $5 additional.

The society will go to law about it.

The Czar has conferred the Cross of St. Stanislas upon ex-Captain Grueff, the notorious abductor of Prince Alexander of Bulgaria, and a persistent plotter against the present regime in Bulgaria. The objection against making lead pencils out of paper instead of wood has been overcome. The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Rail road Company has declared a dividend of one per cent.

Of Naval Interest.

The Chicago has developed new trouble with its "boat" apparatus. It now appears that in rigging out there is a parbuckling against the side not previously accounted for. This means an additional three weeks' stay at the yard before any chance arises to leave for Newport. The Chicago is having a harder time of it than all the new ships so far turned out.

The United States practice ship Chase, with the revenue cutter cadets on board, arrived in Gardiner's Bay last Tuesday from the Azores. The Chase made a most remarkably quick run of it from New-Bedford to Lisbon and almost as good a one on the return trip. During the cruise the Madeiras and the Azores were touched at besides Lisbon.

The work on the Galena is being pushed along. The vessel's new spars are not only in place, but all the rigging is set up and rattled down. The Galena's complement of officers and men is now about full, and what with a few minor repairs and furnishing the vessel can be gotten off inside of three days.

Inquiries have recently been made on the part of civilians to know if there is opportunity to enter the Navy in the capacity of clerks. This may be done by obtaining an appointment from a Paymaster as Paymaster's Clerk. The pay is $1,200.

A Veritable Living Skeleton.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 19.—Robert Marvel, the Octogenarian of Pike township, passed the sixty-seventh day of his fast yesterday. During the past week the hard, bony substance which appeared in his veins when he was first attacked by paralysis has increased and is now felt at intervals of two or three inches all over his body. He is a veritable living skeleton. He has not spoken a word since June 14, and during the past two weeks has lain almost motionless. In that time he has drank, probably, three pints of water, but nothing else has passed into his stomach.

Honoring Augustus Herman.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 19.—A large number of Bohemians went on an excursion Saturday to Bohemia Manor, Cecil County, where interesting ceremonies were held in honor of Augustus Herman, the illustrious Bohemian. GENERAL SPORTING NEWS.

ON THE DIAMOND, THE RACE TRACK AND CINDER PATH.

Cross County Association Matters—The Records of the National and American Leagues To Date—Points About Runners—Nags That Can Go Fast—Races Yet to Come.

The Games Committeemen of the National Cross-Country Association have the power to make any change in the date, events or arrangements of the proposed athletic meeting which is announced for Saturday, October 12, on the grounds of the Staten Island Athletic Club, and, as it is desired to have the hearty co-operation of every organization in the country in making this meeting a pronounced success, it is highly probable that the date of the event will be changed to October 26, as the Riverside Athletic Club, of Newark, N. J., has claimed the announced date, October 12, and the National Cross-Country Association of America does not wish to clash with any club, but desires the hearty good will of all reputable amateur organizations.

Hotel keepers at various summer resorts now give impromptu athletic contests. Any level field is suitable for holding them, and as there are so many athletes of various grades of athletic ability summering at present, if a few happen to meet at a place games are easily arranged. In nearly all cases the hotel proprietor has given the prizes, which, of course, the athletes do not object to. If matters in this line advance so much next season as they have this one, athletes will have more competitions when away on their vacations than they can find in the active Metropolis.

John F. Huneker, of the Athletic Club of the Schuylkill Navy, will officiate as Referee at the annual amateur championship meeting which is to be held at Travers Island, on the grounds of the New-York Athletic Club, on Saturday, September 14. This is a wide departure from the usual stereotyped selection.

The recently-organized Jersey City Star Athletic Club has elected the following officers: James Mahoney, President; Otto Schwoerer, Vice-President; William Fritzer, Recording Secretary; Andrew Horwedel, Corresponding Secretary; John Dodenhoff, Financial Secretary; James Hayden, Treasurer.

Frank Nelson amateur runner, who is a member of the Scottish-American Athletic Club of Jersey City, has given up the cinder path and purchased a bicycle. He will compete in amateur races by next spring.

The following is the standing of the clubs in the National League and American Association up to date:

Sleepy Hollow Cemetery.

[From the Fishkill Standard.]

The trustees of the Sleepy Hollow Cemetery at Tarrytown have preserved carefully some earthworks on the grounds which were thrown up by American patriots in 1777, and which were a part of the machinery of the American Revolution. The works have been lately decorated with a flag-staff and a mounted cannon. The cannon itself has a history. It is one of the first steel cannons ever made. It cost to make it over $4,000. Its inventor was made a member of the Legion of Honor of France by Napoleon III because he proved by this cannon the adaptability of steel to artillery purposes. Battle Hill, as now decorated, is attracting a good deal of attention.

General Boulanger Makes an Address in London—The Austro-German Treaty Modified—A Mennonite's Sharp Practice—Mary Anderson's Condition, etc.

Attempts have been made to hush up a deplorable military blunder, by which a soldier of the Thirteenth Hussars, of Austria, has been killed, while 26 of his comrades and 87 horses were more or less badly injured. It seems that on July 30 the Thirteenth Hussar Regiment, which is quartered at Budapest, was being inspected. The exercises lasted two hours, and were well executed, but when men and horses were quite exhausted from their work, Colonel Von Illes unexpectedly gave the command for a charge at full gallop. The animals were too tired to answer to the spur. Many of them broke down, others tried to jump over those on the ground, others shied and dashed out of the ranks. All this passed so rapidly that before the trumpet could sound a halt the ground was strewn with dismounted troopers and injured horses. Besides the huzzar who has died, there are three others in hospital who are not expected to recover from their injuries, 13 who are suffering from fractures, and 10 from slighter wounds. Out of the 87 chargers which had to be consigned to the veterinary hospital, a considerable number will, no doubt, be unfit for further service.

The incoming class will be by far the largest which ever entered Yale. The principal thing which is troubling the Faculty is how to accommodate them all. The way out of the difficulty which it has been decided to adopt is to drop the lowest 20 candidates. In past years there have always been a great number of men admitted with numerous conditions which they were allowed to work off during the year, but the heavily conditioned men will stand a very poor chance of getting in now.

The advantages of money are nowhere more apparent than among the dwellers on Fifth-avenue, New-York City. Cornelius Vanderbilt has just purchased three houses near his own on that fashionable thoroughfare—not to extend his ball-room, as rumor had it, but to protect himself from the encroachments of trade, which, being no respecter of persons or of places, is gradually taking possession of Fifth as well as of more plebeian avenues.

J. Landis, a Mennonite of Worcester township, Pa., called on Magistrate Urner, Norristown, day before yesterday, and confessed having shot a rabbit out of season. He was fined $5, which he paid. Then he claimed $2.50 informer's fee, which he got. Then he said he had given the rabbit to his son, who had sold it to another man, so that they were violators of the law, and he was entitled to two more fees as informer. He got the $5 additional.

Hyndman, Bedford County, Pa., has a law and order society which has forbidden Sunday sales of cigars, candies, etc. On Sunday H. R. Hyland, a druggist, placed upon his cigar case a bottle of pills labeled "Law and Order Pills." He sold the pills for five cents each, and gave way that amount of merchandise with each pill. The society will go to law about it.

The Czar has conferred the Cross of St. Stanislas upon ex-Captain Grueff, the notorious abductor of Prince Alexander of Bulgaria, and a persistent plotter against the present regime in Bulgaria. This act of the Czar is regarded as one of open hostility to Bulgaria, as well as a menace to the Porte, Grueff being a Turkish outlaw.

In England, Justice Hawkins has just had occasion to sit in the case of a prize fighter who struck his opponent a blow which caused the latter's death. He was adjudged guilty of manslaughter. The fact that a man puts up his hands for defense or offense ceases to be a justification for a blow when the parties are in the prize ring.

The objection against making lead pencils out of paper instead of wood has been overcome. One of the difficulties has been the toughness of the paper covering and its consequent resistance to the action of a knife. By a new process the molecular cohesion of the paper is modified in such a manner that it can be cut as easily as cedar wood.

A Miss Rose Flynn, who lives with John Ardell's family in Bellefonte, Pa., saw a fire kindled by a stroke of lightning on the cupola of the Ardell mansion, last night. She ran to the stable, got the hose, attached it and had a stream on the flames before the family could fairly realize the peril.

Of Naval Interest.

The Chicago has developed new trouble with its "boat" apparatus. It now appears that in rigging out there is a parbuckling against the side not previously accounted for. This means an additional three weeks' stay at the yard before any chance arises to leave for Newport. The Chicago is having a harder time of it than all the new ships so far turned out.

The United States practice ship Chase, with the revenue cutter cadets on board, arrived In Gardiner's Bay last Tuesday from the Azores. A Veritable Living Skeleton.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 19.—Robert Marvel, the Octogenarian of Pike township, passed the sixty-seventh day of his fast yesterday. During the past week the hard, bony substance which appeared in his veins when he was first attacked by paralysis has increased and is now felt at intervals of two or three inches all over his body. He is a veritable living skeleton. He has not spoken a word since June 14, and during the past two weeks has lain almost motionless. GENERAL SPORTING NEWS.

ON THE DIAMOND, THE RACE TRACK AND CINDER PATH.

Cross County Association Matters—The Records of the National and American Leagues To Date—Points About Runners—Nags That Can Go Fast—Races Yet to Come.

The Games Committeemen of the National Cross-Country Association have the power to make any change in the date, events or arrangements of the proposed athletic meeting which is announced for Saturday, October 12, on the grounds of the Staten Island Athletic Club, and, as it is desired to have the hearty co-operation of every organization in the country in making this meeting a pronounced success, it is highly probable that the date of the event will be changed to October 26, as the Riverside Athletic Club, of Newark, N. J., has claimed the announced date, October 12, and the National Cross-Country Association of America does not wish to clash with any club, but desires the hearty good will of all reputable amateur organizations.

Hotel keepers at various summer resorts now give impromptu athletic contests. Any level field is suitable for holding them, and as there are so many athletes of various grades of athletic ability summering at present, if a few happen to meet at a place games are easily arranged. In nearly all cases the hotel proprietor has given the prizes, which, of course, the athletes do not object to. If matters in this line advance so much next season as they have this one, athletes will have more competitions when away on their vacations than they can find in the active Metropolis.

John F. Huneker, of the Athletic Club of the Schuylkill Navy, will officiate as Referee at the annual amateur championship meeting which is to be held at Travers Island, on the grounds of the New-York Athletic Club, on Saturday, September 14. Sleepy Hollow Cemetery.

[From the Fishkill Standard.]

The trustees of the Sleepy Hollow Cemetery at Tarrytown have preserved carefully some earthworks on the grounds which were thrown up by American patriots in 1777, and which were a part of the machinery of the American Revolution. The works have been lately decorated with a flag-staff and a mounted cannon. The cannon itself has a history. It is one of the first steel cannons ever made. It cost to make it over $4,000. Its inventor was made a member of the Legion of Honor of France by Napoleon III because he proved by this cannon the adaptability of steel to artillery purposes. Battle Hill, as now decorated, is attracting a good deal of attention.

There will be a meeting of the members of the congregations Anshe Chesed and Emanuel held to-night. An effort will be made to consolidate the two bodies. If a reorganization is effected it is said that a new synagogue will be built. For some time past the Congregation Anshe Chesed has been without a permanent Rabbi. One member said to-day: "It is time that differences were thrown aside. There are enough Hebrews here to make one good flourishing church body, and the reason that this has not been done before is owing more to personal matters between members of the two factions than anything else."

Recently Mrs. Sarah Ramsey, of Cobleskill, widow of the late Rev. F. Ramsey, and grandmother of Mrs. G. R. Adams, of this City, celebrated her ninetieth birthday. All her children, 10 in number, were present, among them being the Hon. J. H. Ramsey, of Howe's Cave. The youngest child is over 50 years old, all the children are married and yet at the golden wedding of their parents no death had occurred in any of the families. All the children except one, who resides in Virginia, live in this State. Mrs. Ramsey has lived to see the fifth generation. She is in the enjoyment of mental and physical vigor. Her eldest child is 72 years of age. Pictures were taken of the party, the aged mother being the central figure in the group.

William B. Scott has returned from Plattsburgh, where he attended the annual meeting of Superintendents of Alms Houses of this State. On Saturday afternoon John Cook went into Romer & Tremper's storehouse for a nap, telling a colored man to call him before the place was locked up. The man forgot to do so, and Cook, while groping around in the dark, fell through a trap-door and both his ankles were sprained. He lay on the floor until Sunday morning, when he was found and taken to his home in a wheelbarrow.

The new postal cards which will be issued soon are pretty in design. There will be three sizes. One of these will be much larger than the one now in use and will be the one used mainly by business men. Its size will be sufficient to admit the printing of a business card at the top and still allow plenty of room for the message below.

Fire bells were rung on Saturday night. The fire proved to be in a barn near what is called the "Mad House," owned by Samuel L. Smith, George B. Kelsey and Daniel Trowbridge, of West-Haven, Conn., on the Wilbur Road. The building and a small amount of personal property were destroyed.

CAMPING OUT AWAY OUT IN OREGON.

A Breezy Letter From the Rev. F. K. VanTassel—Some Scenes and Incidents.

The Rev. F. K. VanTassel, who a year or so ago wrote a series of entertaining letters describing a "transcontinental trip," under date of August 15 sends the following, dated Ashland, Oregon:

It is some time since I troubled you with a communication. It may seem proper, therefore, to give you a brief description of an outing I have just taken among the mountains of Southern Oregon.

The climate having become unusually dry and hot, we formed a party and with team and wagon loaded with provisions and fixtures for camping out we started for a week's rest in a region about 30 miles from this City, called Dead Indian. Ashland is 2,200 feet above tidewater, and Dead Indian is 3,000 feet higher, so we had some climbing to do, although there is a good wagon-road the entire distance, of much better than any roads I remember in Ulster County, N. Y. Our route lay through ranches and between foot-hills for some 15 miles, when the summit was reached and our weary team had an easier time as we went through dense forests of pine and fir on a comparatively level road the remaining part of the journey.

The slopes on the side of the mountain toward town are mostly devoid of large timber. There are some oaks, alders, willows and manzanita shrubs scattered along the way, but as you near the summit the trees increase in size and number till, as you begin to descend into the Dead Indian country—for there is something of a descent—you are fairly surprised at the mammoth trees. There would be a fortune in 10 acres of this land if it stood near Kingston City. Firs and pines 250 feet high and five feet in diameter are thickly spread over this region. Sometimes there will be no limb to mar the perfectly straight body of the tree for the distance of 60 feet from the ground. This timber will be valuable some day, but at present it would not pay to cut and haul it to the railroad. Besides it would take all the lumber would bring nearly to ship it on these Western roads. Freight is about the same from San Francisco here as from New-York here. Fourth-class freight is $1.70 per cwt. from New-York and the same costs $1.65 from San-Francisco. This timber is also surprisingly thick. The boughs are often interlaced with each other, and I have seen it so thick that a square rod would contain six trees 30 inches through. Wouldn't some of our Ulster lumbermen revel in this forest?

A stream of purest cold water ran through the small opening where we encamped, furnishing us with cooking and drinking water. But the chief attraction was the soda spring. This spring is rich in mineral elements, the principal ones being iron and soda. Southern Oregon abounds in soda and sulphur springs, there being a warm sulphur spring only one and one-half miles from Ashland, where is a bathing house, and two cold sulphur springs in the City limits, both having bathing houses near them. But Oh, ye hunters! Here is the place for you to luxuriate. One of our next neighbors in camp went out one morning to a deer lick and came back with a fawn across his shoulder. He said there were eight there and he aimed for a buck but missed it and killed the fawn. A large cinnamon bear was also killed recently in the neighborhood. Coyotes abound also. They are mountain wolf with extremely large ears. They commit such depredations upon hen-roosts and sheep-folds that a bounty of $2.50 per scalp is offered, I understand, by the Government.

As to camping out, it is a fine thing, and as Abraham Lincoln used to say, for those who like it, it is just the thing that they like. But as for me, I prefer having "four square walls" for my environment by night, especially when you fear that some wild animal will come around and sample your flesh before morning. We made beds for the ladies in wagons covered over with canvas. This did very well but we had to sleep on the ground, right out under the stars. The first night I used a log cabin without door or roof in which I stretched a hammock and lay till morning began to dawn, when I arose, made a fire and looked at the mercury which indicated the degree of 36, almost a frost. It had been often 100 in the shade at Ashland and 90 at 7 o'clock in the evening. The next day I constructed a bough-house of fir branches that made quite a comfortable place to sleep.

The last night we spent five miles this side, but still in the Dead Indian country, where a large barn full of new hay afforded the gentlemen an abiding place for the night. Plenty of milk and rich cream were donated us by the lady of this ranch, in return for which we discoursed music for an hour by the light of a bonfire, having brought along such humble instruments as violins, flute, ocarina and banjo. We reached home Saturday towards evening delighted with our trip. Two others must soon be made, one to the shore of the Pacific and one to Crater Lake, each of them about 100 miles away, and in opposite directions. F. K. VAN TASSEL.

"Church Tea Parties" Here.

Several "church tea parties" are on the tapis. By-the-way, according to the Gentleman's Magazine, there is a curious old Japanese legend which professes to account for the origin of the tea plant. Somewhere about the year 519 A. D., a certain Buddhist priest of great sanctity paid a visit to the Celestial Empire, and, in order to devote himself entirely to the service of God, he solemnly vowed upon one occasion that he would not go to sleep for the remainder of his earthly life, but spend his time in perpetual meditation. Years rolled by, until at last one sultry day Nature asserted herself, and the poor devotee of Buddha fell fast asleep. So great was his remorse when he awoke that, in order to preclude his possibility of a repetition of slumber, he there and then cut off both his eyelashes and flung them on the ground. Passing by the spot next day, great was his astonishment at beholding each eyelash metamorphosed into a shrub and exhibiting "the form of an eyelid bordered with lashes, and possessing the gift of hindering sleep." From these two shrubs, concludes the legend, sprang the tea plant.

The steamboat Mary Powell retains its old-time popularity.

The Outlook for Honey.

The production of honey in Ulster and adjoining counties this season will be small, owing to long-continued rains. There have been few "shining hours" to improve, and the bees have been "worrisome." There has been but little swarming, and the increase in colonies has been small. The honey is more insipid than in previous seasons. This is said to be also on account of the lack of sunshine.

The Brick Market.

The New-York brick market at the end of last week, was as follows: Haverstraws $5.39 to $6; Up-Rivers $4.50 to $5.75, Pale $3 to $3.75.

There will be a meeting of the members of the congregations Anshe Chesed and Emanuel held to-night. An effort will be made to consolidate the two bodies. If a reorganization is effected it is said that a new synagogue will be built. For some time past the Congregation Anshe Chesed has been without a permanent Rabbi. One member said to-day: "It is time that differences were thrown aside. There are enough Hebrews here to make one good flourishing church body, and the reason that this has not been done before is owing more to personal matters between members of the two factions than anything else."

A Breezy Letter From the Rev. F. K. VanTassel—Some Scenes and Incidents.

The Rev. F. K. VanTassel, who a year or so ago wrote a series of entertaining letters describing a "transcontinental trip," under date of August 15 sends the following, dated Ashland, Oregon:

It is some time since I troubled you with a communication. It may seem proper, therefore, to give you a brief description of an outing I have just taken among the mountains of Southern Oregon.

The climate having become unusually dry and hot, we formed a party and with team and wagon loaded with provisions and fixtures for camping out we started for a week's rest in a region about 30 miles from this City, called Dead Indian. Ashland is 2,200 feet above tidewater, and Dead Indian is 3,000 feet higher, so we had some climbing to do, although there is a good wagon-road the entire distance, of much better than any roads I remember in Ulster County, N. Y. Our route lay through ranches and between foot-hills for some 15 miles, when the summit was reached and our weary team had an easier time as we went through dense forests of pine and fir on a comparatively level road the remaining part of the journey.

The slopes on the side of the mountain toward town are mostly devoid of large timber. There are some oaks, alders, willows and manzanita shrubs scattered along the way, but as you near the summit the trees increase in size and number till, as you begin to descend into the Dead Indian country—for there is something of a descent—you are fairly surprised at the mammoth trees. There would be a fortune in 10 acres of this land if it stood near Kingston City. Firs and pines 250 feet high and five feet in diameter are thickly spread over this region. Sometimes there will be no limb to mar the perfectly straight body of the tree for the distance of 60 feet from the ground. This timber will be valuable some day, but at present it would not pay to cut and haul it to the railroad. Besides it would take all the lumber would bring nearly to ship it on these Western roads. Freight is about the same from San Francisco here as from New-York here. Fourth-class freight is $1.70 per cwt. from New-York and the same costs $1.65 from San-Francisco. This timber is also surprisingly thick. The boughs are often interlaced with each other, and I have seen it so thick that a square rod would contain six trees 30 inches through. Wouldn't some of our Ulster lumbermen revel in this forest?

A stream of purest cold water ran through the small opening where we encamped, furnishing us with cooking and drinking water. But the chief attraction was the soda spring. This spring is rich in mineral elements, the principal ones being iron and soda. Southern Oregon abounds in soda and sulphur springs, there being a warm sulphur spring only one and one-half miles from Ashland, where is a bathing house, and two cold sulphur springs in the City limits, both having bathing houses near them. But Oh, ye hunters! Here is the place for you to luxuriate. One of our next neighbors in camp went out one morning to a deer lick and came back with a fawn across his shoulder. He said there were eight there and he aimed for a buck but missed it and killed the fawn. A large cinnamon bear was also killed recently in the neighborhood. Coyotes abound also. They are mountain wolf with extremely large ears. They commit such depredations upon hen-roosts and sheep-folds that a bounty of $2.50 per scalp is offered, I understand, by the Government.

As to camping out, it is a fine thing, and as Abraham Lincoln used to say, for those who like it, it is just the thing that they like. But as for me, I prefer having "four square walls" for my environment by night, especially when you fear that some wild animal will come around and sample your flesh before morning. We made beds for the ladies in wagons covered over with canvas. This did very well but we had to sleep on the ground, right out under the stars. The first night I used a log cabin without door or roof in which I stretched a hammock and lay till morning began to dawn, when I arose, made a fire and looked at the mercury which indicated the degree of 36, almost a frost. It had been often 100 in the shade at Ashland and 90 at 7 o'clock in the evening. The next day I constructed a bough-house of fir branches that made quite a comfortable place to sleep.

The last night we spent five miles this side, but still in the Dead Indian country, where a large barn full of new hay afforded the gentlemen an abiding place for the night. Plenty of milk and rich cream were donated us by the lady of this ranch, in return for which we discoursed music for an hour by the light of a bonfire, having brought along such humble instruments as violins, flute, ocarina and banjo. We reached home Saturday towards evening delighted with our trip. Two others must soon be made, one to the shore of the Pacific and one to Crater Lake, each of them about 100 miles away, and in opposite directions. P. K. VAN TASSEL.

"Bossy" has been trying to get the apple ever since.

Milk producers complain of the low prices they are compelled to accept. This condition is due in great part to an extraordinary growth of grass under the influence of a wet season and to Western competition in dairy products.

"Church Tea Parties" Here.

Several "church tea parties" are on the tapis. By-the-way, according to the Gentleman's Magazine, there is a curious old Japanese legend which professes to account for the origin of the tea plant. Somewhere about the year 519 A. D., a certain Buddhist priest of great sanctity paid a visit to the Celestial Empire, and, in order to devote himself entirely to the service of God, he solemnly vowed upon one occasion that he would not go to sleep for the remainder of his earthly life, but spend his time in perpetual meditation. Years rolled by, until at last one sultry day Nature asserted herself, and the poor devotee of Buddha fell fast asleep. So great was his remorse when he awoke that, in order to preclude his possibility of a repetition of slumber, he there and then cut off both his eyelashes and flung them on the ground. Passing by the spot next day, great was his astonishment at beholding each eyelash metamorphosed into a shrub and exhibiting "the form of an eyelid bordered with lashes, and possessing the gift of hindering sleep." From these two shrubs, concludes the legend, sprang the tea plant.

Along the Docks Here.

The whistle of the steamer "City of Kingston" was blown at the mouth of the Rondout Creek at 5:55 o'clock on Saturday evening. A large number of passengers were landed here.

The steamboat Mary Powell retains its old-time popularity.

The Outlook for Honey.

The production of honey in Ulster and adjoining counties this season will be small, owing to long-continued rains. There have been few "shining hours" to improve, and the bees have been "worrisome." There has been but little swarming, and the increase in colonies has been small. The honey is more insipid than in previous seasons. This is said to be also on account of the lack of sunshine.

The Brick Market.

The New-York brick market at the end of last week, was as follows: Haverstraws $5.39 to $6; Up-Rivers $4.50 to $5.75, Pale $3 to $3.75.

There will be a meeting of the members of the congregations Anshe Chesed and Emanuel held to-night. An effort will be made to consolidate the two bodies. If a reorganization is effected it is said that a new synagogue will be built. For some time past the Congregation Anshe Chesed has been without a permanent Rabbi. One member said to-day: "It is time that differences were thrown aside. There are enough Hebrews here to make one good flourishing church body, and the reason that this has not been done before is owing more to personal matters between members of the two factions than anything else."

Recently Mrs. Sarah Ramsey, of Cobleskill, widow of the late Rev. F. Ramsey, and grandmother of Mrs. G. R. Adams, of this City, celebrated her ninetieth birthday. All her children, 10 in number, were present, among them being the Hon. J. H. Ramsey, of Howe's Cave. The youngest child is over 50 years old, all the children are married and yet at the golden wedding of their parents no death had occurred in any of the families. All the children except one, who resides in Virginia, live in this State. Mrs. Ramsey has lived to see the fifth generation. She is in the enjoyment of mental and physical vigor. Her eldest child is 72 years of age. Pictures were taken of the party, the aged mother being the central figure in the group.

William B. Scott has returned from Plattsburgh, where he attended the annual meeting of Superintendents of Alms Houses of this State. Mr. Scott said that the principal subject discussed was "The Care of the Insane." The Superintendents were unanimously in favor of each county taking care of its own insane, under the supervision of a State Commission. The immigration and tramp questions were considered.

On Saturday afternoon John Cook went into Romer & Tremper's storehouse for a nap, telling a colored man to call him before the place was locked up. The man forgot to do so, and Cook, while groping around in the dark, fell through a trap-door and both his ankles were sprained. He lay on the floor until Sunday morning, when he was found and taken to his home in a wheelbarrow.

The new postal cards which will be issued soon are pretty in design. There will be three sizes. One of these will be much larger than the one now in use and will be the one used mainly by business men. Its size will be sufficient to admit the printing of a business card at the top and still allow plenty of room for the message below.

Fire bells were rung on Saturday night. The fire proved to be in a barn near what is called the "Mad House," owned by Samuel L. Smith, George B. Kelsey and Daniel Trowbridge, of West-Haven, Conn., on the Wilbur Road. The building and a small amount of personal property were destroyed.

A society of young people here is discussing "plant life." Colors may be found in all parts of plants, either on the surface, on the cells of the epidermis, or deeply seated within the tissues, and even in total darkness, as in the roots of the carrot and beetroot.

The members of Kingston Hose Company will make an excursion to Albany on the steamboat Belle Horton on Labor Day, September 2. The running team will participate in a hose race at the State Food Exhibition in the Capital City.

In the Ulster Surrogate's Court to-day the following business was transacted: Proving will of Daniel B. Gregory; order to show cause in estate of Clark Smith; judicial settlement in estate of Ellen LeFever.

On Saturday Health Inspector TenBroeck caused a large quantity of garbage to be removed from a yard on Chamber-street where there is a child ill with diphtheria.

The law forbidding dealers to sell small boys cigarettes is disregarded here, or else the small boys get "children of an older growth" to buy cigarettes for them.

A little tot was taking her first ride on a railroad here. When the train slackened speed at a station she inquired "Mamma, are the cars walking now?"

A three-year old child of Charles Lahl, while playing on Delaware avenue on Saturday afternoon was run over by a passing horse and wagon.

A horse covered with a mosquito netting did more kicking and switching of its tail on The Strand this afternoon than did others without coverings.

CAMPING OUT AWAY OUT IN OREGON.

A Breezy Letter From the Rev. F. K. VanTassel—Some Scenes and Incidents.

The Rev. F. K. VanTassel, who a year or so ago wrote a series of entertaining letters describing a "transcontinental trip," under date of August 15 sends the following, dated Ashland, Oregon:

It is some time since I troubled you with a communication. It may seem proper, therefore, to give you a brief description of an outing I have just taken among the mountains of Southern Oregon.

The climate having become unusually dry and hot, we formed a party and with team and wagon loaded with provisions and fixtures for camping out we started for a week's rest in a region about 30 miles from this City, called Dead Indian. Ashland is 2,200 feet above tidewater, and Dead Indian is 3,000 feet higher, so we had some climbing to do, although there is a good wagon-road the entire distance, of much better than any roads I remember in Ulster County, N. Y. Our route lay through ranches and between foot-hills for some 15 miles, when the summit was reached and our weary team had an easier time as we went through dense forests of pine and fir on a comparatively level road the remaining part of the journey.

The slopes on the side of the mountain toward town are mostly devoid of large timber. There are some oaks, alders, willows and manzanita shrubs scattered along the way, but as you near the summit the trees increase in size and number till, as you begin to descend into the Dead Indian country—for there is something of a descent—you are fairly surprised at the mammoth trees. There would be a fortune in 10 acres of this land if it stood near Kingston City. Firs and pines 250 feet high and five feet in diameter are thickly spread over this region. Sometimes there will be no limb to mar the perfectly straight body of the tree for the distance of 60 feet from the ground. This timber will be valuable some day, but at present it would not pay to cut and haul it to the railroad. Besides it would take all the lumber would bring nearly to ship it on these Western roads. Freight is about the same from San Francisco here as from New-York here. Fourth-class freight is $1.70 per cwt. from New-York and the same costs $1.65 from San-Francisco. This timber is also surprisingly thick. The boughs are often interlaced with each other, and I have seen it so thick that a square rod would contain six trees 30 inches through. Wouldn't some of our Ulster lumbermen revel in this forest?

A stream of purest cold water ran through the small opening where we encamped, furnishing us with cooking and drinking water. But the chief attraction was the soda spring. This spring is rich in mineral elements, the principal ones being iron and soda. Southern Oregon abounds in soda and sulphur springs, there being a warm sulphur spring only one and one-half miles from Ashland, where is a bathing house, and two cold sulphur springs in the City limits, both having bathing houses near them. But Oh, ye hunters! Here is the place for you to luxuriate. One of our next neighbors in camp went out one morning to a deer lick and came back with a fawn across his shoulder. He said there were eight there and he aimed for a buck but missed it and killed the fawn. A large cinnamon bear was also killed recently in the neighborhood. Coyotes abound also. They are mountain wolf with extremely large ears. They commit such depredations upon hen-roosts and sheep-folds that a bounty of $2.50 per scalp is offered, I understand, by the Government.

As to camping out, it is a fine thing, and as Abraham Lincoln used to say, for those who like it, it is just the thing that they like. But as for me, I prefer having "four square walls" for my environment by night, especially when you fear that some wild animal will come around and sample your flesh before morning. We made beds for the ladies in wagons covered over with canvas. This did very well but we had to sleep on the ground, right out under the stars. The first night I used a log cabin without door or roof in which I stretched a hammock and lay till morning began to dawn, when I arose, made a fire and looked at the mercury which indicated the degree of 36, almost a frost. It had been often 100 in the shade at Ashland and 90 at 7 o'clock in the evening. The next day I constructed a bough-house of fir branches that made quite a comfortable place to sleep.

The last night we spent five miles this side, but still in the Dead Indian country, where a large barn full of new hay afforded the gentlemen an abiding place for the night. Plenty of milk and rich cream were donated us by the lady of this ranch, in return for which we discoursed music for an hour by the light of a bonfire, having brought along such humble instruments as violins, flute, ocarina and banjo. We reached home Saturday towards evening delighted with our trip. Two others must soon be made, one to the shore of the Pacific and one to Crater Lake, each of them about 100 miles away, and in opposite directions. F. K. VAN TASSEL.

"Church Tea Parties" Here.

Several "church tea parties" are on the tapis. By-the-way, according to the Gentleman's Magazine, there is a curious old Japanese legend which professes to account for the origin of the tea plant. Somewhere about the year 519 A. D., a certain Buddhist priest of great sanctity paid a visit to the Celestial Empire, and, in order to devote himself entirely to the service of God, he solemnly vowed upon one occasion that he would not go to sleep for the remainder of his earthly life, but spend his time in perpetual meditation. Years rolled by, until at last one sultry day Nature asserted herself, and the poor devotee of Buddha fell fast asleep. So great was his remorse when he awoke that, in order to preclude his possibility of a repetition of slumber, he there and then cut off both his eyelashes and flung them on the ground. Passing by the spot next day, great was his astonishment at beholding each eyelash metamorphosed into a shrub and exhibiting "the form of an eyelid bordered with lashes, and possessing the gift of hindering sleep." From these two shrubs, concludes the legend, sprang the tea plant.

The production of honey in Ulster and adjoining counties this season will be small, owing to long-continued rains. There have been few "shining hours" to improve, and the bees have been "worrisome." There has been but little swarming, and the increase in colonies has been small. The honey is more insipid than in previous seasons. This is said to be also on account of the lack of sunshine.
